A YOUNG EAGLE FROM COLUMBUS TAKES FLIGHT

by KEN LACKEY

Ron Zehel was the first of the Mr. Drummer finalists to bit town. I met Ron and his sponsor, Ed Tomsic of the Columbus Earle. the Saturday before the contest at Mr. S Leathers, where I was buying rubber and Ron was being cruised by every man within a three-block radius. Ed. asked me if I could suggest a place for Ron to work out. I wanted to say he could do pushups on my face, but Coulter Thomas beat me to the punch. Over the next week, sly Coulter was only too happy to extend to Ron the benefit of his expertise. Ron's SE debut was noteworthy for another reason: Alan Selov matters of size, assured me that after trying on every codpiece in the store, Mr. 5 had none large enough to accomodate Mr. Zehel Mr. Drummer re-defines extra-large!

The dark flashing eyes of Texas were upon me when Wes

Decker appeared at the Drummer offices and my brain immediately turned to jello. Wes looked tough and tall and somewhat intimidating, but he turned out to be quite modest and very charming. An unofficial poll of the Drummer staff would eventually award. Wes the titles of Nicest Personality and Best Armptes. Every time I saw Wes during Leather Pride Week, he had a different tongue up under his arm.

Mark Klein of San Diego had come very highly recommended by tMt. Michael Pereyra, but Mike hadn't prepared me for that sublimely hairy chest Mark and Chuck Smukler from Denver quickly split the Drummer poll for Best Chest Hair. It became clear after a couple of public appearances that Mark, Wes and Ron Zebel were consistent crowd favorites, with Ron perhaps garnering the most enthusiastic response.

By Wednesday of Leather Pride Week, a dozen Drummerstuds had arrived safely in San Francisco. I'll risk a cliche by saying that any one of the twelve finalists would make a fine Mr. Drummer and that everyone involved with the contest was very impressed by the high caliber of the representatives. The one person who would best get to know all twelve men over the rehearsal period tand also one of the shrewdest judges of character I know) was Stage Manager, Head Denperson and all around SuperWoman Audrey loseph. A skilled organizer, Audrey's duties ran the imaginable gamul from scripting the

Dixie Drummer, Chris Minor, when he became the target of an over-zealous rent-a-cop who confiscated his leather slapper (a deadly weapon!) and threatened to stop the show! Audrey still gets a glow when she talks about the Drummer contestants, and how sweet and personable they were as individuals, how cooperative and supportive of each other they were during what was an admittedly confused and hectic period, and the total absence of backstabbing and primadonnaism often associated with the beauty contest ritual, It makes us at Drummer feel very proud that our contest would attract such a great group of entrants, and we congratulate all twelve men Without their unique individual input, the contest would never have been the success it turned out to be.

The gentleman who assumed the enviable task of seeing each of the twelve contestants buck naked (Yeah, it's a dirty job, but etc., etc.) was Official Contest Photographer, Drew Nicholas. We chose Drew not only for his photographic artistry, but also because of his SM expertise, in the hope that we would obtain the most erotic and sensual vision of the contestants in the limited time available. He did not disappoint. Some of these young men were amazing subjects: Joe

Manoni from Providence, RI, for example turned out to be extremely photogenic, making him the favorite of Drummer's Art Director, I met Joe at the Eagle auction, where he breathlessly asked me for as much into as continued on page 8

WEDNESDAY

Dinner With a Winner

As the representative of the host city, Mr. Northern California Drummer, Jim Kahl, organized a welcoming party and benefit auction at the SF Eagle. Each of the twelve Mr. Drummer finalists were introduced to the eager mob on the Eagle patio. The opportunity to have dinner at the Galleon restaurant with the Drummerman of one's choice elicited some spirited bidding. The local leatherman went for the top amount as $1,050 was bid for the privilege of dinner with Im Kahl (No doubt beef was on the menul. A total of $3,125. was raised to benefit the AIDS Emergency Fund. Jim would like to thank the SF leather community for its enthusiastic participation in the event.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER

Fetish and Fantasy Night

The Powerhouse bar was packed to the fucking rafters with SM experts and aficionados of every size, shape, gender and persuasion, which definitely made mingling an educational experience. For the fifth time, Alan Selby of Mr. 5 Leathers created a fabulous party where those who do 5M most devotedly could share their artistry with the community at large. And if one occasionally had trouble breathing in the jam-packed throng, remember that breath control is definitely a part of SMI. Alan thanks all those who participated in the event, which raised $2,750 for the AIDS Emergency Fund, a cause most dear to his heart. In future, Fetish and Fantasy will be held at the Endup bar in order to accomodate the large crowd. It will become a biannual event to coincide with both the International Ms Leather and Mr. Drummer contests.

We had a great time! Leather Dance

Up Your Alley Productions kicked out the walls of the San Franciscan's Crystal Ballroom with its Leather Dance featuring the soulful sounds of Disco Diva Viola Wills, La Wills definitely had the Dehner boots pounding the parquet, as did the night's deejay Mike Murray (Mr. Drummer 1986). The evening was also enlivened by the razorsharp wit of comics Danny Williams and Shan Carr. This crowd came to dance, and anyone who can't imagine dancing in full leather should have seen Mr. Great Lakes Drummer, Erik Alexander, as he demonstrated exactly how it's done possible on Mr. SF Leather, Stephen Mistler, Chuck Smukler, Mr. Rocky Mountain Drummer, also impressed us with his skill as shots of blue-eyed hairy Chuck where he looks less than perfect. We'll be bringing Drummer readers the results of the nothe cumming year.

By Saturday night, the pressure was oif the members of Drummer's staff and upon the shoulders of Contest Producer Jerry attended the Finals at the Galleria, and will be soon evident to the horny masses who purchase the MEN videotape of Mr. Drummer 88. They have quite a treat in store because, from the standa model. There simply are no point of pacing and production values, this year's contest was the best ever.

Different aspects of the show appealed to various tastes, but holds-barred photo sessions there were some undisputed Drew orchestrated throughout highlights which deserve mention here. Mike Murray (Mr.

Drummer 86) and Marga Gomez skillfully handled their emcee duties and seemed to spark each other before the receptive audi-Vallaire (of Up Your Alley Pro- ence II have a friend who unawhom Drummer bashedly says that Marga's dress thanks heartily for a most suc- was the high point of the evening cessful show), Audrey Joseph, for him!). Viola Wills tore up the the esteemed panel of judges house with some earthy rhythm and of course, the contestants and blues, an encore to her fabuthemselves. That they performed lous Friday performance. Shan admirably under pressure is a Carr and B.C. Cliver (Internamatter of record for anyone who tional Ms Leather 88, and her first-runner-up) charmed crowd which admittedly was assembled to gaze at manilesh, but was glad for the invaluable support of our sisters in leather. The "Drummer Dancers" (a concept I had trouble envisioning) performed a slickly energetic routine and were very entertaining indeed.

The anxiously-awaited lantasy presentations lived up to most people's expectations, although some in the audience were disturbed by intimations of nonconsensuality they contained. I've said it before and I'll say it again: These are presentations of sexual FANTASY, and are not meant to portray behaviors which should necessarily be encouraged in real-life sexual situations. This is the competition that originated with the Mr. Drummer contest (although such events as International Ms Leather and Mr. New York Leather have since followed our lead), and affords a more revealing glimpse of each contestant than a mere parade before the audience. One of the heroes of the evening was Mr. Northeast Drummer, John Scancarella (voted Best-Dressed in Leather by Drummer), who, unruffled by the absence of a no-show Drummerboy, went on to perform like real pro. Certainly sexual showmanship was evidenced by contestants such as Wes Decker, whose gang initiation fantasy was highly theatrical. In Wes presentation, a rival gang member spray-paints graffill (PUSSY9) across a poster of a streetgang leader (Wes), is caught in the act and suffers the revenge of the leader and his henchmen, Revenge was a factor in a number of the other fantasies, including that of Erik Alexander, Mr.

Great Lakes Drummer, who underwent an assault at the hands of an attacker, and then turned the tables to the delight of the audience. A lighter note was struck by Rob Neyts, Mr. Northwest Drummer, whose fantasy involved an obstetrics table shoulder-length veterinary gloves and a basket full of "newborn" teddy bears! Rob proved that he definitely knows something about birthing babies. Rob was also the backstage choice for Mr. Congeniality, Audrey assures us. Walter Thompson III showed a great deal of class with his dignified and stylish presentation, which incorporated dance music and the spoken word, as well as showing off his background in physique posing competition. Like his predecessor Michael Shareck, Ric Turner (Mr. Mid-Atlantic Drummer) did a solo routine. Swathed in a bath towel, Ric worked over his own tits and rose to the challenge of a massive latex fist, while reading the Drummer classifieds for encouragement. Electrotorture was featured in the lantasies of Jim Kahl and Ron Zehel, who earned the nickname. "The Happy Sadist", when he smilingly cloubled his pleasure and doubled his fun by subcluing and locturing two bottoms. Ron wowed the crowd with his climax iliguratively speaking as a realistic family lewels dido effectively simulated orgasm (while bearing an uncanny resemblance to the real Zehel thing, we might add).

With the five phases of competition (Leather image, cruisewear, interview, jockstrap and fantasy) completed, it was anyone's guess as to whom the victor would be. And, unfortunately, the audience would be kept guessing for many minutes to come. The one complaint I've heard about this year's contest was the long delay in announcing the winner, and I'm sure that changes in the scoring system will be enacted before next year.

"Second-runner-up: Mr. Southwest Drummer, Wes Decker!" This came as a surprise to many who had thought that the dark, devilish Texan had it sewn up. Certainly, Wes had taken San Francisco by storm and won quite a few hearts during the week.

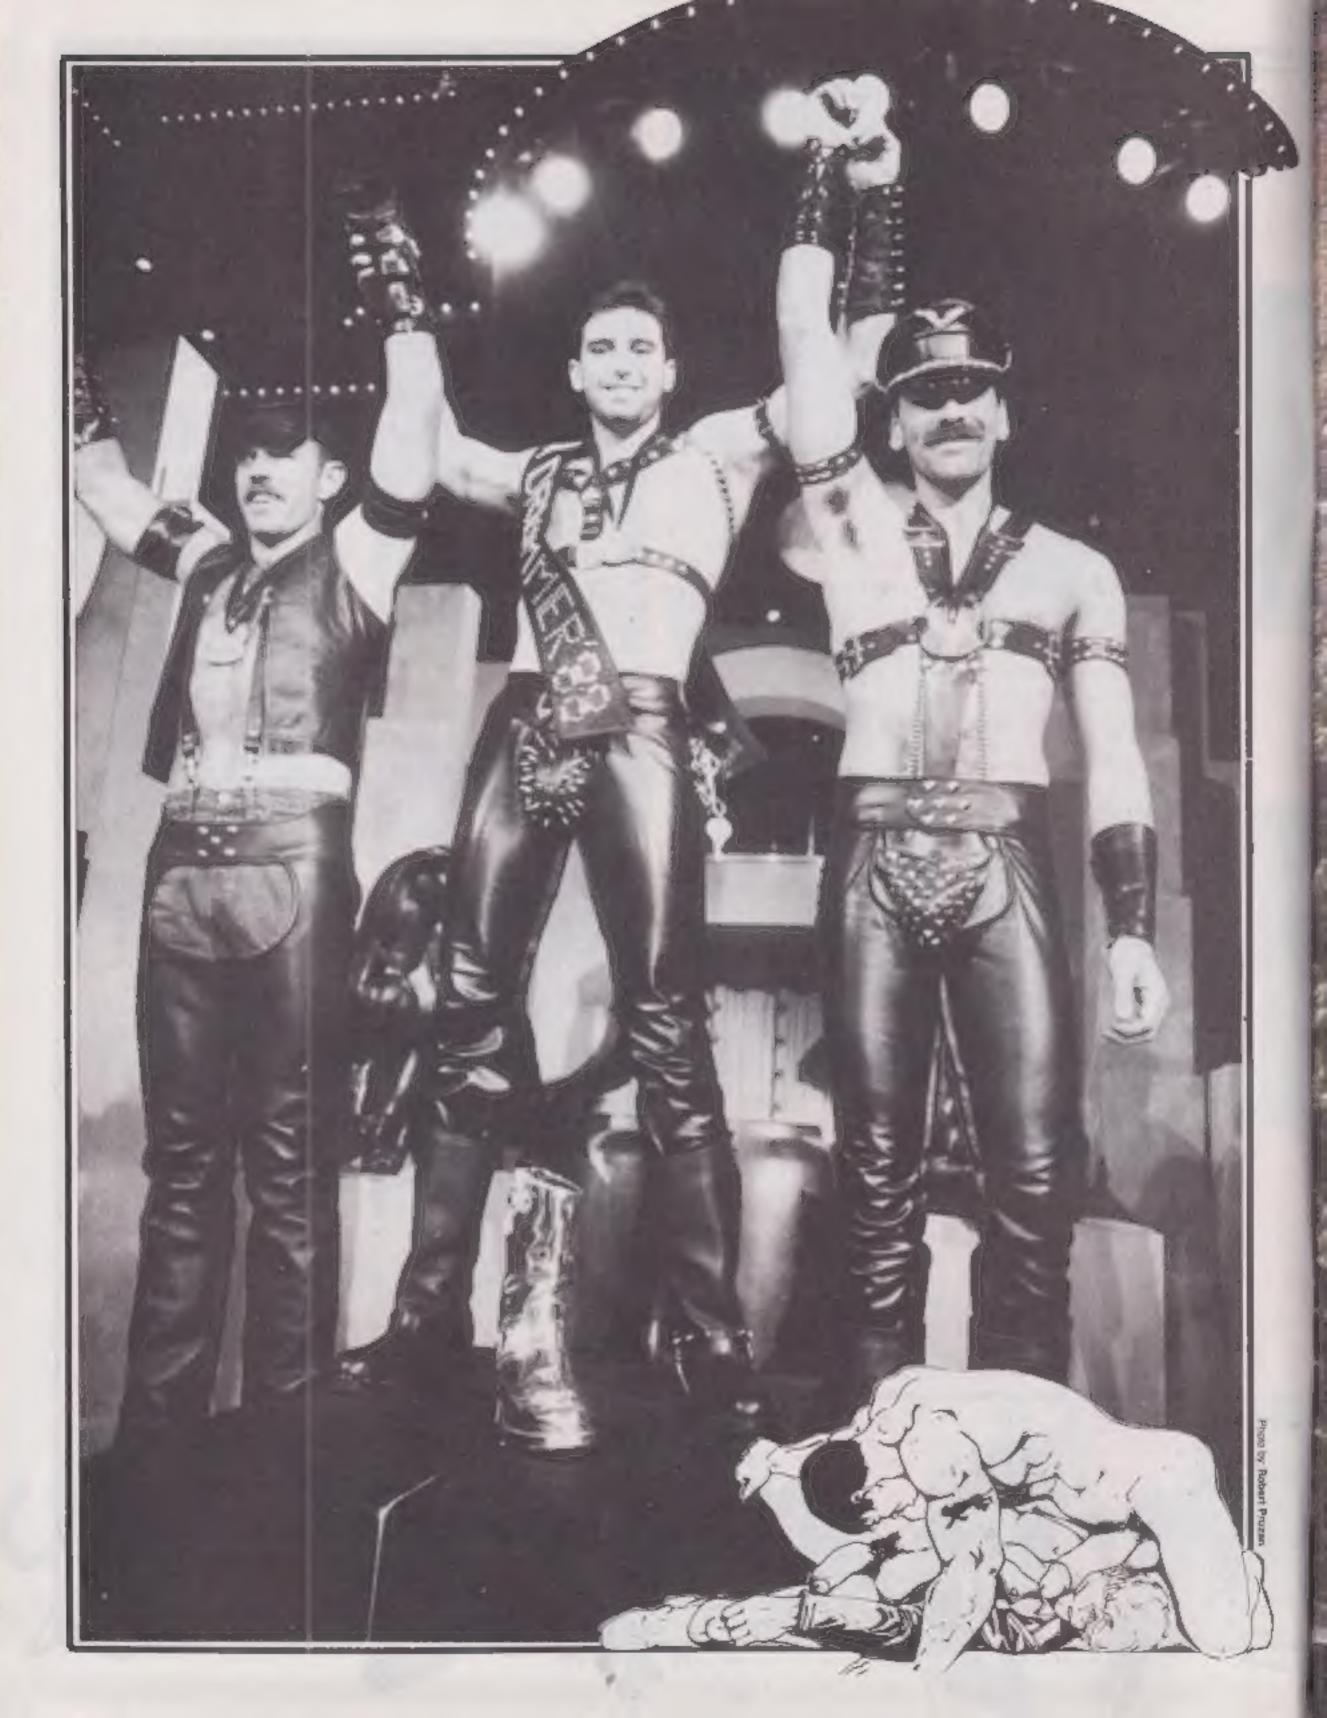

"First-runner-up: Mr. Southern California Drummer, Mark Kleint" Again, Mark had many loval fans in the house. He also conformed most closely to the Mr. Drummer image as exemplified by Mark Alexander a mature, macho stud completely at home on Top, as his bondageand-bloodletting fantasy revealed.

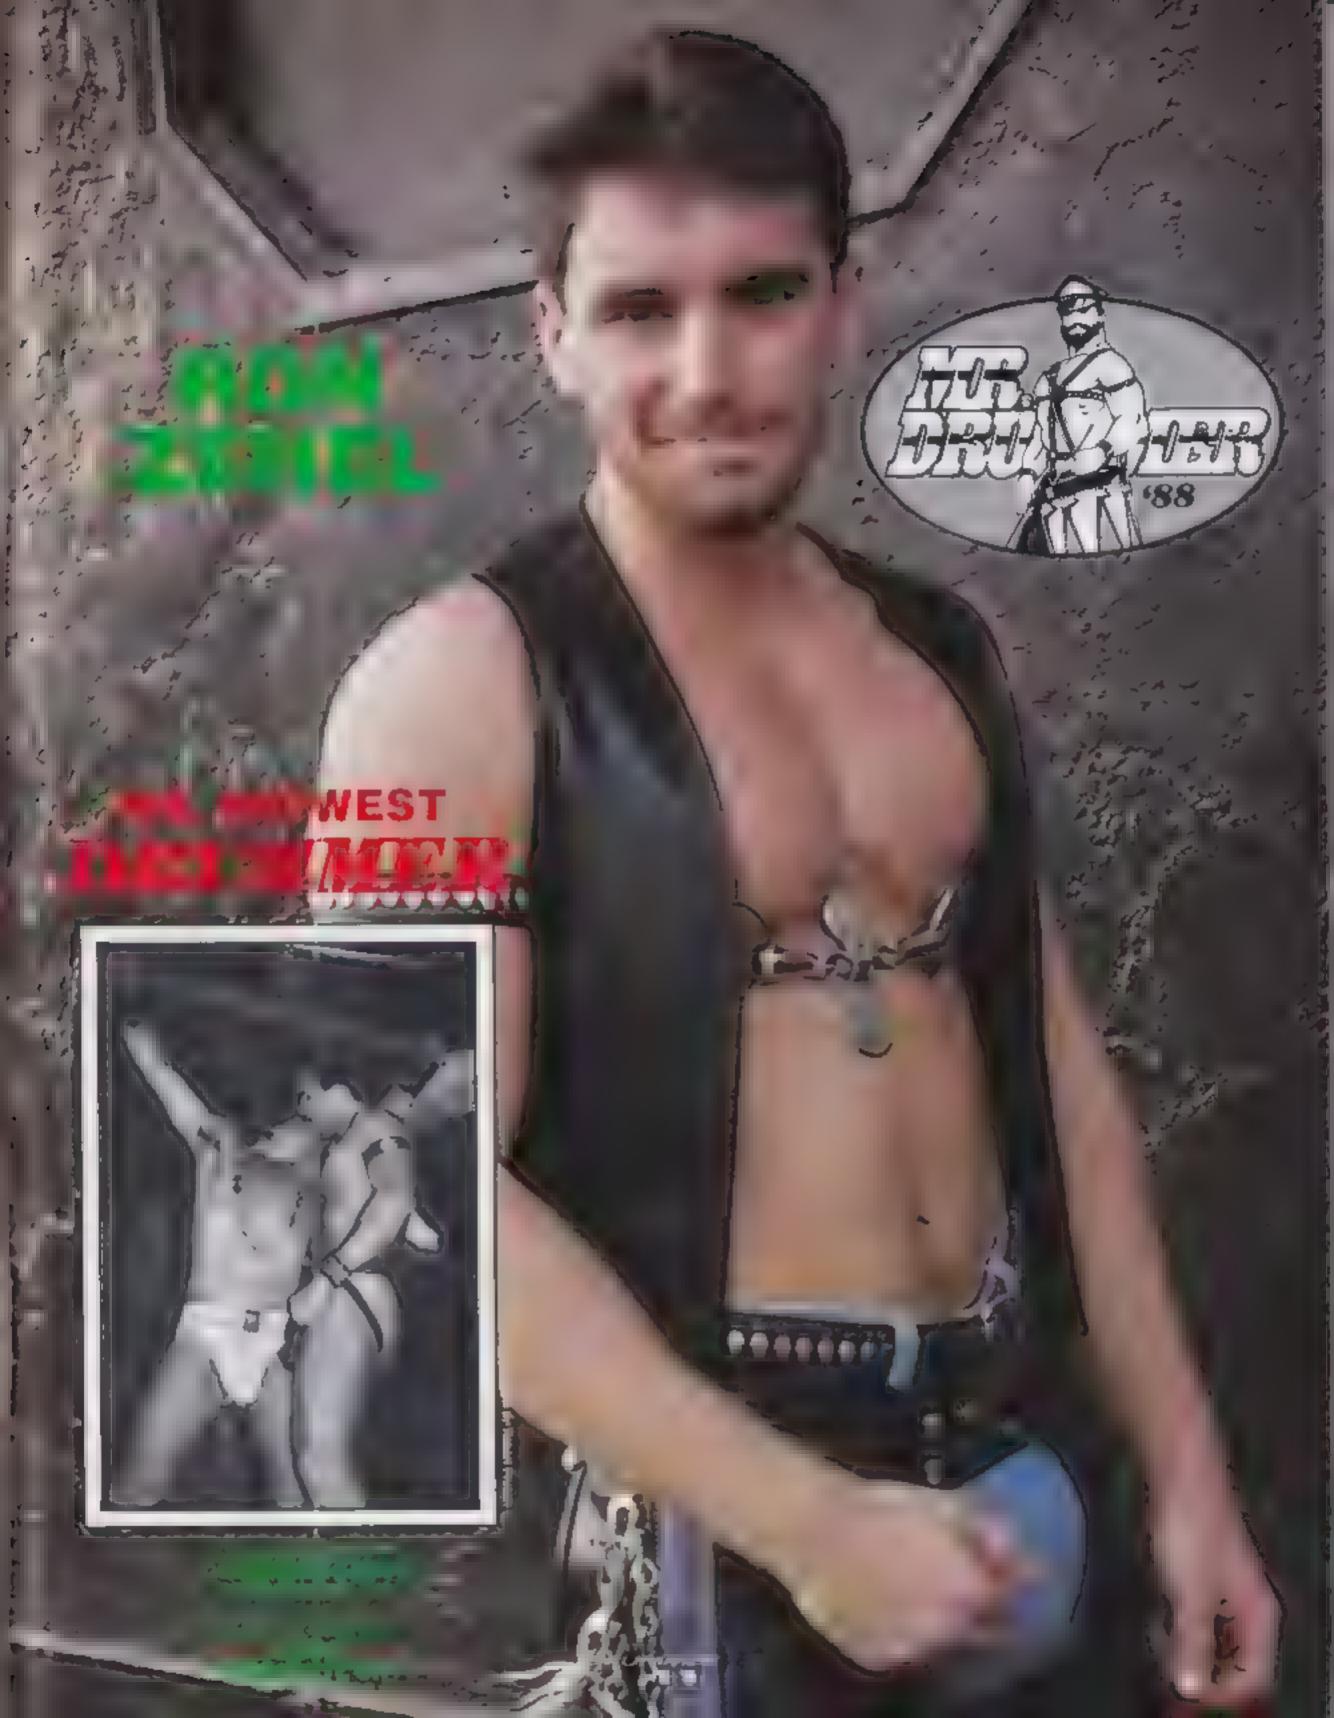

"Mr. Drummer 1988 is Mr. Midwest Drummer, Ron Zehell" While zealous Ron had been inspiring erections everywhere he went during Leather Pride Week, there were a number of traditionalists who felt that he was too nubile, too unseasoned, too damned young to be Mr. Drummer. However, we at Drummer are more than comfortable with the judges choice and what he represents: an up-dated, more modern image, a young stud just stepping into manhood with a maturity and grace beyond his years. There is a certain healthy glow to Ron that is more in keeping with the current sexual climate than with the glassyeyed hedonism of the past. This is a Mr. Drummer for whom the Good Old Days are right now and for whom the future is awash with possibilities: If he's this gorgeous al twenty-one, imagine him ten virile, masculine years from now when he will STILL be in his prime! We are very proud of our new Mr. Drummer, who casts a fresh look at the future and meets it head-on, fully capable of responding to its challenges and responsibilities. We give you Ron Zehel, Mr. Drummer 1988.

Yeah, so I can suck myself. It's certainly no big deal to me.

I've been able to since I started jacking off But it's always been a big attraction to other guys —and women, too, come to think of it. Not that I play around with them very much, but when the opportunity anses, it can be fun. Doesn't really feel any different—just a little softer, less muscular. But where was I?

Sucking myself off, while everyone else gasped in amazement Right.

Air through my teen years—along with landard jackoff techniques, in the bothin I d suck myself off now and then, st to see if I could still do it. I think the ast private Lever got about sex in those is was soing into the woods to jack off. r s re in ever showed phyone what I quess, thought everyone did it as though anyone ever fold me ht me how if fust came naturally Speaking of which, I had been jacking off or diself-sucking) for nearly a year when this had a real aushing climax -and if which even in my mouth, I are It, though. Cou dn't wait to see what cum tasted like I was a disappointed. And next time I made a point of shooting off in my mouth Eventure by the novelly were off but I've a ways believed that direct from the dick is the only way to eat cum Inal doesn't take into account the changes that look place in my sex habits a lew years back It's got to put a new personative on things when you realize that what you're drinking— however much you've grown to like it—may be a deadly dose I'm not sure a believe that swar owing cum is an evenue of transmission. I know spent their whole fucking lives behind

g-ory holes. And yes, I do envy them that Because I'm not sure and when there's doubt, uncertainty—fantasy—blossoms, but real sex goes out the window.

So my own cum means as much to me now as it did back in those days when it was the only supply I had. And I don't give it up for just anyone. Has to be someone I care a of about or at east om real turned on to Orla good audience.

Yeah that's really the best I can enjoy. sex one-on-one, but what alicks my trigger is having an audience— dozens of men with their eyes glued to me up there on slage: leasing them, easing off my clothes working it up, seducing them—no matter how will ng they are—sweating beating. rubbing, licking my dickhead my pits, my sweaty arms, chest fingers tresh from playng with my butthole even my fuckin loes. Scooping up precum, rubbing my face with it—it's the smeds of sex that are present onstage: sweat and cum and ass and feet and spit and rubber . Yeah, I sometimes use rubbers to Jack off in onstage. It still holds the lantasy straigh boy livin' lo get a piece of a drive-in movie, my dad poppin' If to the new next-door neighbor on her couch white I peep foscinated through the door. Rea ity is no place for the stage, and vice versa. Give me tantasyl—and I get down in my lantasies when I'm up there showin' it off Let it all: loose: sex with women, kids, dogs, horses k (ling sex: hanging, castration, lucking to death ... Hey, it's FANTASY, for Christ's consumptive sake! And if you can't go wherever you want to in fantasy, then you re one somy uptight motherfucker! One of my fovones, a real fried-and-true standby: I s ip and fall on the stage, after I've been up there teasing these men for fifteen or twenty minutes, getting them all hot Before I can get up, half a dozen men from the audience take turns fucking me, right in the spotlights, I eventually give up struggling. No use, By the time they've finished it's down. I'm slicked down with cum, and when the last of them disappears, all I can do is roll over and beat out that longsuppressed load that's been building in my balls all night

Once again fantasy, okay? I've been raped, if wasn't fun. Two big black dudes (Oh, God, do we have to go into this? is it catering to racial stereotypes and prejudice to describe simple reality?) who offered me a ride home—what did I know? I was seventeen and quite green behind the ears—took me to a park and raped me, or fried. Neither one could really get it in me. They were both too high or scared. and I was tight as a virgin, which I wasn't too for from being. They settled for beging me up, taking my clothes and teaving me semi-conscious on the street in a neighborhood i'd never seen before. Even al the time i almost couldn't help laughing it mean, what did they get out of it? I at least got a very dramatic story to tell . . . and it did nothing to diminish my strong rape tontosies

That's the real wonder of fantasy it's not real. You don't have to worry about it getting carried away, it will do exactly what you want—and no more. You needn't deal with it in the morning if you're not a morning person. I am. I'm more likely to jack off upon waking than at any other time. A fresh beginning and all that. Daylight streaming in. It makes me feet very sexy There are no consequences—physical or otherwise. One of my more persistent (antasies involves a Doberman pinscher, and if I'm not mistaken, what I have in mind could get me arrested in a tiffy states—if practiced. Why is an ulter mystery to me. suspect the dog would enjoy fucking me and I don't contemplate involving a third party, so who is injured? But I digress, I've never acted on this lantasy. The furthest live golfen is encouraging an eager puppy (owned by a willing co-conspirator) to lick me all over, which proved mildly fillfalling. and pleased the dog no end. The dog even qualified as a juvenile proving that there is no age limit on enjoying sex t suspect I won't get any closer to realizing this particular fontasy any I me soon, because of the downing realization of the vast difference between fantosy and reality. Perhaps I'm losing my sense of adventure but I no tanger feet the need to experience every sensation the world has to offer Some of them are better left to the mag nation

Which brings us to the most leifing criticism of modern video eratical the directors don't seem to understand the eral c strength of suggestion. They all want to bludgeon us with lifteen fucking minutes of non-stop fucking—to prove, presumably, that the participants in fact fucked for at least filteen minutes. Thank you, but I m capable of imagining that, probably more vividly than the participants are capable of showing if

The point here, I think, is that even if I trained a dog to tuck me—and I suspect if takes more patience than I have to devote to the project—if probably would not live up to my expectations. I'm sure that given time, I could grow fond of a dog's technique but I doubt that it would feel the same as a man fucking the And I doubt that I could get a rubber on the dog but as long as it remains untried, it will continue to be prime fantasy material.

And this is really the arealest part of being on stage: at least for the moment, I am these men's fantasies. I become more than just myself. I open myself up to all possible interpretations. I am anything they want me to be it's the only time in life. when I get to be more than one person #s the only time I can forget the person I think myself to be That husk doesn't matter now. The trenzy of imagination takes over they are in control, and as often as not they don't even realize it, don't see that by beating their meal they are guiding memolding me, exciting me, in much the same way they think I'm doing for them. They will me to bend over and slurp on my cockhead one more time and I do it. smeaning precum on my face—lip gloss, i call if Without that collective energy out there forcing me, mentally raping me, telling me in a hundred's lent ways just what they'd like to do to me, surrounding me and crushing me in heated sexual bondage.

... without all that I would truly be alone on a very large stage. I have performed that way, to men who I was sure couldn't care less what I was doing It's a frightening experience. I need men who are alive, who want something from me, who are willing to give for it. I wonder if they know what they'e giving support, enthusiasm, sexuality. An audience is at least as important to the performer as the performer to the audience. Actor? No, I don't act. I perform. Player, if you must Entertainer? I hope so, because I'm certainly entertained Fantasy is my business, and it's a business Llove Satisfying men. Now there's a profession worthy of a lifetime of pursuit.

Mind Rape

We lay together that night, though I do not now allow you the memory of Me.

I was your first Master: the master of your mind. When you saw Me, you came to Me from across the bar. I willed it thus.

My thoughts pierced your essence and you belonged to Me. There was yet no resistance.
Your eyes held with Mine; I took you.
In your mind and in your reality, I began to teach you.

RODEO IIVE?

Lam a lesbian bottom. My mistress and I are regular readers of Drummer, and have always been highly pieased by your own courage inteitigence, sensitivity toward the wide variety of people who make up the 5/M community and humanity in general Usually we both applaud your editorial comments, which are one of the major reasons my Mistress buys the magazine However, I would like to raise your consciousness a bit in one area.

In Drummer 119, you wrote in praise of gay rodeo and said, "Rodeo and 5/M have a lot in common," Wrong, Rodeo and RAPE have a lot in common! Pain is indeed a common element in rodeo, and quite a lot of that pain is inflicted upon helpless, non-consenting animals who certainly have not volunteered for the experience I used to enjoy rodeo myself, until I realized how much torture and suffering it causes the animal victims who can ne ther protest nor light back effectively. Arimal bashing is no more a valid sport than gay-bashing, and gays, especially, should be sensitive toward the similar ties

-KW / Alhuquerque, NM

Drummer spoke to Luke O'Killia, Rodeo Director of the Bay Area Chapter of the Golden State Rodeo Association, who had the following response to your comments: "At most gay rodeos, most of the injuries received are to the contestant and not to the animal. At this year's event we did not have one animal injured, as compared to eight or ten injured contestants. We had a representative from the ASPCA who turned in a favorable report and had a veterinarian on the premises both days. Additionally, we complied fully with the animal rights policy of Hayward Parks and Recreation, who have invited us back for next year."

-KJI

I do not believe that you misunderstood when I equated SM and Rodeo, I was speaking of the HUMAN contestants, not the animals. I am a field zoologist trained to observe nature as it is in the wild, not with experimental animals in the laboratory. I have deep compassion for, and a fair understanding of, the ecological and behavioral relationships between and within species. I do not support cruelty to animals in any way. But I also in no way place individual animal rights on a par with human rights!

What is happening in a rodeo is not the egurvalent of rape. The equivalent of rape in cattle or horses happens every time a female is placed in a breeding chute and the chosen male sent in after her. The equivalent of slavery is the very ownership of one or more horse or head of cattle. Am I to advocate that domestic animals have the right to select their own mates and to full freedom? A bull bucks when a rider gets on his back, is this cruelty? How does it compare to the bucking of a young horse who has never been ridden but is being trained to carry a inder, "broken" to use the common term for this fraining? Am I to argue that no horse should be subjected to such torture, no horse should be ridden unless it first indicates a desire to have a person on its back?

I do not suppose that a calf enjoys having a rope flung over its head and being flung to the ground with three feet tied. But as a demonstration of skill for the human, a skill once vital to the human husbandry of the cattle, which would not exist in anything like their present form without that husbandry (they probably would be extinct like their wild ancestors), I think it is fully acceptable. It does no lasting physical or emotional damage to the animal. And I doubt that a goal considers it humiliating to be dressed in a pair of jockey shorts.

DUMPING ON SCATE

I hope that in an upcoming tetish teature that you will do one on raunch including scat. As a long timer reader of Drummer I mistill waiting to see scat discussed and teatured as an erotic possibility. Is there any reason why you have avoided this? How are men who have scat fantasies and desires going to find out that others are turned on to the same thing if Drummer, which legitimizes all other erotic tand sate activities that are different, continues to avoid this type of sex.

thope you answer this question in your magazine and, even better, I hope you will include scat in your articles, essays, photos etc. If you can show a guy pissing, couldn't you show a guy taking a dump?

- KM / New York NYC

In a word, NO. Scat is one of the subjects that the censors were very touchy about even in the most liberal of days. Though there have been articles and fiction pieces, and even some drawings in

Drummer in the relatively distant past, and in Mach more recently, scat is NOT something you will be seeing in Drummer these days. You probably won't see more photos of guys pissing either. You don't like that? Neither do J! But until we get an administration that respects individual rights on all levels, as much as they love their puritanical views of sex, that is the

AWESOME DAWSON

Okay, you guys at Drummer I've had it with pulling my meat at the same picture over and over again. Let's have some more—a lot more—of Brian Dawson face, ass, belly, you name it. This guy is the hottest thing to grace your pages in years. While his home phone number may be foo much to ask, a poster and some color shots might do as a starter. Hopefully, Zeus or Colf will pick up on the opportunity but in the meantime, you've got one reader in New York who begs you (please, Sirl) to give us more of Brian. Or at least fell us where more can be found! Your mag is still the best!

SEVERIN

And the whip beat out the music of pain. Severin's shiny leather boots gleamed all the more slick scarlet.

Could it really be so long . . . could it really be happening for so long? Moss green. Such an odd color for a room like this. A color rarely favored . . . but, perhaps in this world it is the color to revere . . . but, no, wasn't it black? Shiny black ... leather and satin ... like in that old song, "Shiny, shiny, shiny boots of leather . . . " Yes, that's it. Or is that all the imagination? Or is that imagery? Or is that what the participonts are supposed to wear? It is so hard to get all of this right . . . to get all the rules right. Rules . . . even during something like this you would think a body has more to think of than just rules while all of this is going on.

And the whip sizzled through the air again.

But, perhaps this is a mistake. Maybe it isn't rules at all . . pageantry? tradition? ceremony? Ah, perhaps that is it. ceremony . . . rites? ritual? Maybe that seems closer . . . ritual. Or could it be a socrament? Or maybe it is a ceremony after all. Maybe a combination of the three Three . . . such a mystical number. Like trinity . . . three . . so important to so many when it is the belief—the need to believe. Oh, it a so hard to say for sure right now

And the whip repeated its love song.

So, is that right? right now? rite? rites? So many meaning for the right word. . . or the word rite? Am I doing my part right? would I be considered right by the others? This world is so different . . . or is it? Different to whom . . . and why?

Crackling whip spit your tune.

Is it the pain that is different?... from their pain ... or is all pain the same? All people suffer pain, What do they say? A I people bring on their own problems and their own pain. themselves. Zingl...zingl...zingl went the strings of my heart. Is that the way it goes? Or zing went the strings of my whip? No, no . . . that's madness. That is definitely madness. Why, it doesn't even rhyme! But poems of love do rhyme . . . but, not always . . . no, not always. But, doesn't love bring pain . . . so why not pain bring love? All those poems, all those songs of love . . . mostly, most of the time they are about the pain love brings, not the joy. What was it? Love is a hurt n' thing. Great love songs always talk about the pain yes, the pain . . .

So much . . . so much to consider, is the attitude right? The stance? The moans, the screams? Funny how one has time to think of all these things between all the noise . . . But, what do they say? A drowning man's whole life passes before him . . But, I am not really drawning unless one considers one's own uices . . . one s own blood. Lucky it is not running into my face Now how would that look to everyone? Face a scarred up . . . no . . . the scors cannot show. We are not supposed to let the cars we pick up ever show . . . we are never supposed to display our pain, except in the eyes. Can we ever really shutter the windows to our souls? But there is always a little crack in the shutters even if we do , , , so all can see , , , the pain we had and the pain we are willing to have. The pain we are looking for. Sometimes we have to show it . . . sometimes we even have to scream . . . even if it is only silently to ourselves. Or is it? Sometimes it requires screoming, it's insisted upon, and other times it is forbidden. It depends on who and what, I imagine . . . just like everything else. All the other tried alternatives . . . fail or win . . . fail . . . hmm, fail? At what? Why not? And who determines that?

Everyone always judging . . . so I have to get this right . no scars must show . . . that would not be right . . . I think . . . Snap . . . Crackle . , . Pop . , . The taste of the whip wakes you up—or is that for a breakfast cereal? No, it isn't right to think of that at a time like this . . . or is it? Just what does one think of now? Fantosize? But, did fantasy bring me here in the first place? Maybe I should have found out all of this before I started this whole episode, then I wouldn't have to do this and think all of this at the same time . . . But, what would I think off But, don't people start things, say things and do things without thinking about it first everyday?

But . . . I know certain things are right . . . or, another word more important . . . accepted Yes, yes, I want desperately to be accepted . . . and just who doesn't? That is the most important thing to everyone . . . if it is by just one person, a group, a crowd, or a country . . . or just by one's self.

And the whip's rhythmic erotica continues its melodic whirl.

This for me is what is left . . . or is it? I think it is . . . I want this . . . and I want to be accepted here . . . for what comes ofter? I want to do all the things right . . . right? Right! To do something right you have to practice, and I will keep on practicing until I get it right . . . until I am accepted in this world. Until I can belong . . . belong . . . belong. Everyone has to belong somewhere. And this is what is left . . . by choice?

by desperation? by desire? by and by.

Must belong . . . so then . . . ah, that is it! So then, to belong you must follow the rules and do it right. Everything has rules to be done right if you want to belong . . . and you can think you are crazy . . . think drowning mon's thoughts, last thoughts . . . and then you will do everything right. The ultimate link in the ultimate of life. You will know what to do because it is you . . . being you . . . being me . . . by instinct it will be right. Feeling good . . . feeling good to feel pain . . . feeling pain to feel good . . . and belong . . . belong . . . belong

And the whip beat out the music of pain while Severin continued to beat himself with the whip.

SO FAR IN BEIRUT. . .

Mineteen. Innocent. Far from home.

Because of one irrevocable act, David Patowski, a young Marine PFC, finds himself totally helpless and alone in the aleazepits of the war-torn city.

Refusing to be used sexually by his sergeant, he violently assaults his superior officer and is forced underground.

He soon becomes a pawn in the hands of Vince Zorio, a consummately evil and powerful man, who forces him to suck dick and be flicked.

teaches him to crave the very fuckboy submission for which he was willing to commit murder in order to avoid.

A master of exploitation, Zorio compels young David to display his newly emasculated flickability for Benny, one of Beirut's cruelest, most hardened pimps.

In Part Three,

David encounters other ruthless, unscrupulous, dominant men

BEIRUT,

PART THREE

by Aaron Travis

Beirut, Lebanon/1983
"I told you already—I had a blond in mind" The

"I told you already—I had a blond in mind." The customer's voice is stern and deep, his patience wearing thin.

"Blond," Benny mutters, squinting as if he's never heard the word before. "Blond, huh? You sure? Redheads can be a lot of fun." He flashes his best used-car dealer smile. "And this number's got a beautiful hole. A real honey-pot. I guarantee from personal experience." He gropes himself and sniggers

Benny and the customer stand in a darkened hall-way in front of a long one-way mirror, peering into the dimly lit cubicle beyond. Benny has already shown him the Arab boys. The man threw a boner in his pants you could spot across a football field, but claimed he wasn't interested. Kept talking about a blond. Benny saved the redhead for last. After the Arab boys got the big guy frustrated and hot, maybe the redhead would do.

The redhead's name is Duncan. Belfast boy, barely eighteen. Like all Benny's boys, Duncan has a story. Got tired of being spanked by the nuns at Catholic school, skipped town and made his way to Liverpool; stowed away on a German freighter because he wanted to see the world—but ended up seeing not much more than the four walls of the captain's cabin, and a lot of the captain's dick. Four months at sea chained nude to a bare metal cot made him long for the milder touch of Sister Agnes' leather strap. One night three of the swabbies broke in and raped him; the captain called it "cheating" and kicked him off the ship in Beirut without a penny. That was when Benny got his hooks into him.

Duncan is slender but sturdy, with a lean, coltish body long arms and legs, a tightly muscled chest.

Skin like peaches and cream. Cute face with freckles and an upturned nose. He lies naked on the bed, exhausted and dozing, curled into a ball with his backside toward the mirror—just back from an overnight loan-out to Benny's friend Vince Zorio. Naked, that is, except for the dog collar around his throat and the leather cuffs with D-rings around each ankle and wrist; Vince didn't even bother to take them off Broad red stripes across the boy's ass show where Vince has been using his belt.

Benny raps on the glass, then growls into the speaker. "Rise and shine, cocksucker. You got another customer."

The boy jerks on the bed, then lets out a low whimper He unfolds his long limbs, groaning as if he's too weak or too stiff to move. He slumps onto the floor and crawls toward the mirror on his hand and knees. All Benny's boys are trained to obey without question. All Benny's boys know how to crawl.

Duncan reaches the mirror Benny looks down through the one-way and sniggers. "Stand up, kid. Give the man a look."

The boy rises awkwardly to his feet. Wobbly as a newborn colt, trembling at the knees. Eyes dull and glazed. He looks into the mirror, flinching at his own reflection.

The corner of his mouth is swollen and bruised, his cheek welted with the outline of a handprint. His nipples are distended and puffy, standing out from his hard lean chest like ripe strawberries—a night with Vince Zorio. His cock, surprisingly big on such a slender frame, curves up stiff and rubbery, as red and swollen as his nipples, laced with slender whipmarks. As usual, Vince didn't let him shoot.

The customer frowns "Doesn't look too fresh."

"Don't worry," Benny says. "You know these young fags. Lots of pep. Just look at his dick—hard as a rock."

"I'm not interested in his dick."

Benny leans toward the speaker. "Turn around, kid. The man wants to see what you're good for"

The redhead looks unhappy. He bites his lip, lowers his eyes. He begins to shake, and his hard lean chest breaks out in a sweat.

"Turn around, kid." Benny's voice is low and menacing. "Show the man your pussy."

The boy takes a shuddering breath, then slowly turns and bends forward at the waist. He grabs his ankles and rises on tiptoe, spreading his cheeks wide open.

Red stripes show where Vince's belt licked all the way into the boy's crack, nipping at the hole. The little bud shows all the sign; of having been freshly fucked

"The little bud shows all are raw and chafed, swollen like a bee by a very large cock—the pink lips are raw and chafed, swollen like a bee sting, shiny with oil and semen. As they watch, the hole yawns open, pooching outward like a mouth puckering for a kiss, oozing inside out to expose a half-inch of the slick lining within. The hole begins to flutter and fart, dribbling a stream of gooey semen, smacking its lips with a soft popping noise as if it were trying to speak. The unmistakable mark of the master—Vince Zorio was here. An educated fuckhole, trained to begout loud for cock, custom-fitted to give maximum pleasure to an oversized dick.

"What'd I tell you? Quite a hole, huh?" Benny gives the upthrust ass a dreamy look. "Kinda makes you wanna stick your finger in it." He glances down at the customer's crotch. The bulge is still there. So is the stony expression on the man's face.

"Too skinny. I told you I wanted a blond. A blond kid with some meat on him."

Benny wrinkles his nose. One-time clients are a pain in the ass. Always showing up with something particular in mind, waving a fistful of cash, wanting it right away. Of course he can't blame the guy for being picky—not at the rates Benny charges. The cost of a good time has gone up since things started falling apart in Beirut.

The good old days Only a few years ago, Berrut was the center of the world Like Havana in the fifties, until Castro and the revolution came along to spoil the fun. Beirut has the war with no winners; no perfect set-up can last forever Benny will have to move his operations soon, but not until the regulars have coughed up their last dime and even the rats start evacuating the rubble

Benny sighs. "Okay. Tell you what, I still got one possibility But he won't be fresh. He's busy taking care of a couple of clients right now."

"So what are you waiting for?"

Benny shruga. The customer is always right.

They turn and walk down the hallway, leaving Duncan bent over with his ass in the air, confused but afraid to move, his legs trembling from the strain, his cock-hungry hole smacking its lips.

Benny leads the man to the end of the corridor, then down a flight of booming metal steps. The basement is warm and humid, like a steambath. The hallway is so narrow that the two men walk single-file Naked lightbulbs hang from the ceiling; patches of darkness alternate with cones of harsh white light. The walls and floor are painted black. Metal pipes crisscross overhead, covered with a crust of fuzzy grime.

As they round a corner, Benny gives the customer a sidelong glance. Despite his blond features and a faint Southern accent, the man reminds him somehow of Vince Zorio. The same hard set of the jaw. The same surly curl on his upper lip and the smary, condescending look in his pale grey eyes. The same hard bulge at the man's crotch, extending halfway to his knee. Handsome as the devil and hung like a horse, and well aware of it. A big guy, big all over, filling out his casual linen suit like a football player turned fashion model.

At least Vince Zorio has a sense of humor. Vince can roll with the punches; of course Vince is the one who does the punching. But the blond Southerner is no good ole boy His bearing is ramrod-stiff, aristocratic and aloof. No nonsense. Strictly business. Military maybe, West Point, or some big-shot young executive, the kind of go-getter who makes it hard for the older execs to sleen at night. The kind of man who doesn't take no for an answer

They round another corner and stop in a patch of darkness, facing a wall covered by heavy drapes. From beyond the drapes come muffled sounds of grunting and the heavy, sweaty crack of flesh against flesh. Benny draws back the curtains to reveal another one-way mirror.

"The only blond I got in stock right now." Benny lights a cigarette. "The clients are a couple of Turks from Istanbul. Rezi, the big one, and his buddy Ahmed. Get down to Beirut three or four times a year Always know they'll have a good time at Benny's. I give 'em a discount. They help keep the boys in line."

The little cubicle is sparsely furnished. A small bed, a night stand, an easy chair, a seedy carpet with an arabesque pattern, its colors dim and faded. A shaded lamp with tassels gives off a lurid amber glow.

The Turk called Ahmed is seated in the chair.

stripped down to a grungy white Tshirt Slumped low in the seat, knees ho ked over the padded arms, exposing his genitals and the hairy crack of his ass Every inch of flesh between his thighs is covered with a thick glossy coating of spit. The moist bud of his asshole glistens with sall vain the amberlight.

His big cock is slung forward, drooping down, the head nestled between big low hanging balls. Thick and bloated, with the swollen, rubbery look of a big cock that's been sucked on for hours. A cock that's already come more than once resting before it comes again. A thread of left over seme i dangles from the tip

Ahmed seyes are half shut and dreamy Reneath his perfectly trimmed mustache his lips are curled in a faint smile of amiliame it as he watches the show

In the center of the room, in profile to both the sleepy Turk and the anseen watchers beyond the glass a hunky young blond is raked on his hands and knees The other Turk—the giant Rez.—is seated on the boy's lower back riding him like a pony across the room

Rezi is a magnificent animal of a man. Dark and massively muscular, his gigantic chest and limbs matted with wiry black hair, shiny with sweat and oil. Brutally handsome with a tristing mustache and a broad smile that shows the gap between his two front teeth. His legs ride clear of the ground, bent back so that the tops of his feet rest against the boy's thighs. His big, loose bars are project in the small of the boy's back. His huge cook jute upward like a clip One arm reaches forward, clutching a fistful of blond hair. The other stretches back in iding a diabled leather best. Rezi snaps it against the boy's assi bellowing with laughter as the blond lurches forward, staggering under his weight.

The young blond, despite his muscular physique, looks absurdly small compared to the big Turk mounted on his back. His shoulders and arms strain beneath the burden, muscles standing out in stark relief. His head is wrenched back by the fist in his hair, his lean torso bent like a bow, thrusting his ass upward, showing off the sleek curve where his powerful buttocks flow into thick sturdy thighs Hairless and steek, pale and gl.stening with sweat. Trembing beneath the weight panting for breath squealing and lurching forward as Rezi pops the best against his naked ass His stabby I the prny cock juts out bonehard between his thighs ridic lously smal, compared to the Turk's mass, ve truncheen, bobbing ludicrously up and down, slap; ii.g ij against his beliy as he breaks into a trot

Rez. drives him until they reach the wall More siaps from the belt, and the big awkwardly turns about the top-heavy load shifting which you his back threatening to capsize Ahmed manages a sleepy laugh

Rezi frowns at the boy's clumsiness. He twists his hair and barks a command in Turkish, leaning forward to slap the belt upward against his belly, landing a lucky shot that smacks the tip of the boy's penis. The blond whimnes and jerks forward, stamping across the carpet.

Benny smiles 'Rezis not this rough with the Arab boys It's the fair-haired numbers that bring out his mean streak Should veseen the working over he gave the redhead last time he was here" He glances at the customer The man's handsome features are strangely twisted, his eyes flashing with an intensity that makes Benny balk.

"His face," the man mutters "I can't see his face"

"Sure Sure, his face' Benny steps back and leans toward the speaker He clears his throat. "Hey boys. Having a good time?"

The Turks seem to welcome the intrusion Ahmed answers by grabbing his cock between two fingers and spanking it back and forth against his thighs Rezi spins his head toward the mirror, surprised for an instant then flashes a broad grin. He jerks on the boy's hair like a rein, pulling him to a sudden halt

The blond gasps and turns his face away from the mirror His body trembles on the verge of collapse Perhaps from shame Perhaps from exhaustion. Perhaps because he knows that something terrible is about to happen

Hey, don't let me interrupt." Benny tries to make his voice light and playful, but the strain comes through. The customer is getting on his nerves. "Got a guy out here who likes 'em blond and hunky Wants a good look at the kid's face."

Rezi nods. He lowers his feet to the ground and slides backward, over the boy's ass and off, into a crouch. He tightens his grip on the boy's hair, pulling him back until his hands clear the carpet. Rezi tilts back on the balls of his feet, aiming his cock between the lashed and sweaty buttocks. Then he springs forward and up, straightening his legs. With a single thrust he spears the boy to the hilt and stands upright.

The maneuver is a spectacle of raw strength, brought off with a kind of animal grace, as effortless as spearing a piece of meat on a fork. Except that this piece of meat is alive

The boy goes rigid, paralyzed by the sudden, total penetration. Hands reaching back to claw at Rezi's hips. Head wrenched back, mouth open in a silent scream. Toes extended, feet paddling the air—Rezi's cock lifts him clear off the floor.

Rezi turns toward the mirror, displaying the nude, twitching body impaled on his cock, like a trophy mounted on his dick. Face pulled back, hands clutching Rezi's hips, the boy's body appears headless, armless, a sculptured mass of pale agenized flesh suspended in midair and framed by the dark brawn of Rezi's body. The boy is sleek and hairless, denuded even between his legs. His chest breaks out in a sudden drenching sweat, running in a liquid sheet across the smooth slabs of muscle, collecting at the tips of his huge, obscenely bloated nipples.

Rezi cockwalks him toward the mirror, thrusting savagely with his hips. The boy suddenly comes alive. Skewered on the big cook, squealing and grunting and dancing like a puppet. His big meaty pecs flop up and down. His stubby little cock slaps back and forth between his belly and thighs. Like a spastic walking on water, toes barely grazing the floor, driven forward by the cock up his ass.

They reach the mirror Rezi grabs the boy's hips and hoists him up, clear off the cock. He bends at the knees and leans back, making his hips into a cradle, then lowers the boy onto the greasy pole of his cock. The boy sits on it in midair, hips tilted forward, back arched, legs dangling on either side of Rezi's steel-like thighs. Rezi is a show-off, making sure the men beyond the mirror have a clear view of the boy's hole, and the big cock stuffed inside

He slides his hands up the boy's torso, cupping his breasts from behind. Squeezing the fleshy slabs between his foreingers and thumbs, making the big nipples popout, wagging them at the mirror Grinding his hips, making the boy's cock rotate in a jagged ellipse. Reaching down to give it a quick one-two slap with his open palms before reaching back to squeeze the boy's tits

He pinches the nipples between his fingernails, tugging at the swollen buds as if he were trying to pluck them from the boy's chest. He clamps them between his fingertips, squeezing and pulling at the tips, milking him like a woman. Fucking him like a woman, while the others watch. Letting them all see what it means to be a toy for a man with a big dick and a cruel imagination. The boy groans and writhes, his head thrown back on Rezi's big shoulder.

"His face." The customer hisses through gritted teeth. "I still can't see his face."

Benny gives a start, so fascinated by the spectacle beyond the glass that he's almost forgotten the reason. If he wasn't in the middle of a deal, he'd be tempted to join in the fun himself. Nobody knows how to show off a hot piece of boycunt like Rezi... except Vince Zorlo, of course. It was Vince who found the blond in the first place. Vince who had the boy's pubic hair permanently removed. Vince who paid to have the silicone injected into his nipples. Vince who trained the boy to open wide and drool from both ends at the mere sight of another man's cock

Benny leans toward the speaker. His voice is hourse and throaty "C'mon Rezi. We already know you got the dick of death. Now show us the cocksucker's face."

Rezi flashes a cocky grin. Rezi likes to tease. He grabs a fistful of the boy's hair and thrusts his head toward the mirror

The boy's forehead strikes the glass with a thump Benny jerks back in alarm, but the customer steps closer, until his face and the boy's are only inches apart. The boy's nose and cheek are mashed flat against the glass. Jaw slack, mouth open and dribbling. Forehead beaded with sweat, plastered with stray tendrils of hair. His long blond lashes flutter, his blue eyes are glazed and staring. Humiliated and upperly helpless. No other sight on earth as beautiful—the face of a handsome boy with a really big one up his butt.

Benny gawks, as spellbound as the customer. Then he comes to his senses. He closes the curtains with a flourish. The customer is hooked, no doubt about it. Time to close the deal. Benny's eyes light up with dollar signs.

The customer stands stock-still, staring into the darkness of the drapes, listening to the muffled noises that come from the cubicle beyond—a sudden volley of slapping, barking laughter and a high girlish shriek.

"So, What do you think? About as blond as they come. But hardly fresh."

"I want him."

"Maybe tomorrow, huh? The Turks have already been working him over for hours. And Rezi looks like he's just getting warmed up."

"Tonight. I won't be here tomorrow."

"Sure. Have to be late, though." An idea pops into Benny's head 'And there's an extra fee for sessions after midnight."

The customer turns and gives him a long, hard stare. "I ll be here at midnight, then Have him cleaned up and ready for me." The look in his eyes is crazy again. Benny wonders about the bandage taped to the guy's temple. Maybe something's wrong with his head.

"Sure . . . By the way, the kid's name is David."

The man walks past him, giving no response. As if the boy's name doesn't interest him. Or as if he knew it already (End part three)

Robert C. Ratliff,

Back in the early seventies, I was having dinner with a friend at the Haven restaurant, after seeing a film featuring Casey Donovan. The graphic scenes in this film sparked my imagination and my curiosity about cock rings. I wasn't sure why one wore a cock ring, or even how to put one on, until I saw Casey do it During dinner, I excused myself briefly and ran across Polk Street to Le Salon to buy my first metal cock ring, I hurried back to the Haven and upstairs to the restroom to try it on (fortunately, my dinner companion was very patient') Much to my dismay, it was too small. I had picked the middle size, figuring I was just a young average kind of guy. After I revealed my disappointment to my friend and we finished our dinner, he accompanied me back to the store for a quick exchange for the larger ring. After putting it on in my car, I had a rockhard erection for three fucking hours. Success at last!

Since then, I've been around the world and the block a few times. I'vehad a great deal of retail experience with leather goods and toys, and I've come to realize that there is a first time for everyone. Even in a social setting when someone asks, "Why a cock ring?," I don't mind sharing the information to help him make his own choice. I let him. know that a cock ring will help hold in the blood flowing into the cock during erection. The correct method for trying on a cock ring is to carefully pull the scrotum and testicles (one at a timelithrough first, and then slowly pull the cockhead through, and finally slide the ring down to the base of the genitals This might seem like kindergarten information that everyone should know already. but you'd be surprised how many men have asked for help squeezing into a cock ring, having put their penis through first and then trying to jam their balls through! Then there is the matter of siz ing: if you size a ring too small, there is a chance that you might not be able to remove it with any ease. Before you panic and run to the hospital to have it cut off, take a relaxing hot bath or shower. This will normally allow you to get it off safely.

Wrap It Up!

Today there are many available types and styles of cock rings and cock straps Your basic metal "O" ring is usually made from a length of brass bar, rounded, welded closed and dip-plated When purchasing one, be careful that the plating is not cracked or peeling and that the we ding joint does not have any burrs that could cut into the skin. Rubher "O" rings made from black latex can offer more flexibility, and are considered more comfortable by those who use. them regularly. One drawback to these is that the pubic hairs can easily roll and wrap themselves around these rubber rings, causing some discomfort. If this happens, I would recommend a quick frim, which usually alleviates the problem. A basic leather cock strap is made of garment leather and is folged and stitched, with a few spaps to wrap. around the genitals (often three or five snaps, beace the terms "three-speed" or "five-speed") and ensure adjustability. Although soft and flexible, after a few good wearings and washings the leather will quickly stretch, bind and bare the edges of the snaps which will cut into tender skin.

As you may be aware, there are many variations on the basics, from the simple reather thong to the seven-gates-of-hel-However, what I would like to bring your attention to are what I call the "state of the art" cock rings and straps. The finest metal accoutrements are available from Hawk Metals, These rings, bands and doughnuts are made from bronze, and cut, shaped and polished by hand. They are available in the basic diameters of 1 1/2", 1 1/4" and 2". Drameters of 1 1/4". I 'm" and 2 '4" are available in some sty es. There is no welding joint to be concerned about (a definite prost) and their chromium-nickel electro-plating will not crack or peel. For you die-hards like myself, who like to wear a ring during the course of your day, the plating may wear down. To prevent this, I always advise the application of a couple of drops of baby oil on the inside of the ring before wearing. Because these rings are hand-shaped and their interior design is flatter, they are much more comfortable than the basic metal "O"

For the increasing number of latex freaks out there, I recommend the larger fatter) rubber doughnuts available from Mad Dog Enterprises. They come in the three basic sizes (S, M and, of course L) and, because of their thickness, pubes are less likely to get tangled up in these They are flexible, comfortable and a well come addition to any toy chest

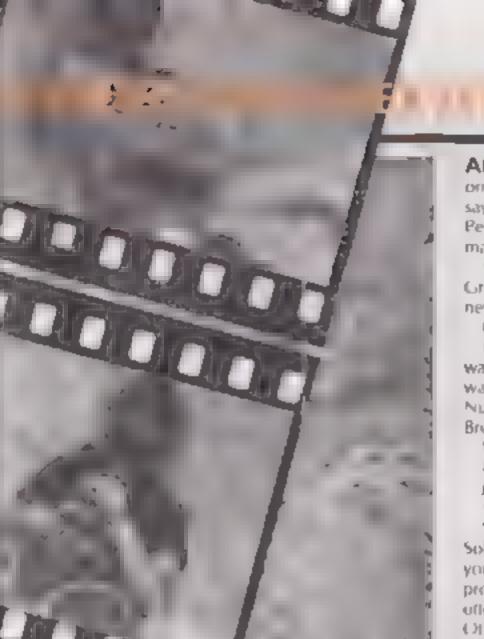

For the "state of the art" version of the basic leather cock strap, you need look no further than Faccon Innovations' designs in heavier Latigo leather. These are designed with your comfort and safety in mind, providing you with a full leather experience. They snap, buckle ind can padlock into place, and come in a variety of styles, with the exact diameters from 11/2" to 2 //". The buckle and padlockable styles allow for the Master and slave to each have his own set. The heavier Latigo leather can be washed without lear of it stretching, binding or baring any snaps to cut into your genitals. After a couple of good wearings to break in the leather, you can be assured that you are wearing a comfortable leather piece that will last and that you can be proud of in any situation

A cock ring or strap is a piece of sewelry, a toy and a reflection of your personality. You can use them just for sexual play, to give you a more pronounced bulge in your pants, or just because you like the look or feel. Whether you're into the simpler land cheaperi basics, or the latest in "State of the art" equipment, these are purchases one should consider carefully. Try them on for size, ask questions of retail personnel, and be satisfied with their answers and the piece before purchasing. With diameters, be sure to think about your cock in both its soft and erect state, the balls tlight or lowhangers), and the overall effect you want. Will this ring give you the sensation you are looking for (a snug or loose fif, etc. }? With the correct information, you cannot help but make the best decision for yourself with your new toy. With the rising cost of materials and the constant demand for something new and different, do not feet too inhibited to ask questions about a product you may be untamiliar with. Who knows? You may have an idea of your own that could revolutionize the toy industry! Your satisfaction and constructive criticism are the only guarantee that we designers can continue to bring the public the products they desire, Just remember you have only the limits of your own imagination to show you the way to pleasure In this day and age, even as an adult I can never have enough toys, as long as they provide me with the quality experi ence I deserve for my dollar It's my hearttett philosophy that one should always go for the gold, strive to do one's best, accomplish and complete one's goals, and most of all live and enjoy one's lite to the fullest. This extends to choosing accessories to enhance one's sexual fulfillment, and this is the spirit in which I have written this article. Above all else, have fun!

As colic writer Boyd MacDonalc has observed, Old Reliable gives you access on video to types you direver dare divite into your lovely home." But cared behind the vided screen, these Solo Performance Artists, directed by the ever's harry onscreen you e of Hurles, who bills himself in the A Little of Queens as "The Prince of Hollywood" are totally safe and woodroosly satisfying mamples of classic Scio Sec video.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

However. Old Reliable's appeal can also, for some, be his drawback, his models, all of whom and to be "straight," and, well maybe "bi," are statistically about 21 to 25 years old. If you prefer grown-up men with some mileage on their tits and some experience in their face, visu'll need to as ance CIR's offerings with lapes from other video studios. But, thank your stars. Hurles shoots with a lithe cool of a tenured university anthropologist, a stratum of Solo Sex Street Study no one tapes better. In the matter of "balance," you'ls find the trade of talent between studios quite interesting Fir ristance, one of Old Regable's bronds becomes a Palm Drive Video stud, just as J. D. BONDAGE SOLOS: ZEUS IS LOOSE!

When it comes to Solo Sex video, ZEUS Studios, a longitime pro-in mags and photo packs, has in the last year positively bioomed into Solo Heroic Bondage videos. TIGHTROPEN 1-TIGHTROPEN 2, TIGHTROPEN 3, and TIGHTROPES 4 are all masterial marriages oi B-O-N-D-A-C. E-8-M-U-5-C-1. E-posing If you get oit on handsome for kers like justy Boddy justice and hunky Scott Answer fied to a wooden post, straining, steaming, dropping sweat, cutsing, and popping veins and muscle, in jockstrap and then naked, before your very eyes, you may have to reset your Pacemaker to keep from meeting your Maker.

ZEUS harkens back to the Horlywood movies where the hero, from Alan Laurd and Victor My are to 512ve Reeves and, most recently. Blond-Bear John (Dukes of Hazard) Schoe det, always spend half-the last reel, stripped half-naked, straining in bondage. Marrying that Soio Bondage concept to the Solo-Posing of a competitive Bodybuilder on Stage. ZEUS's chemistry is Triple A Bomb shift

In a physique contest, tans go crazy as the muscle hunk, glistening Solo, oded on the posing dais, strains, like some Prometheus Bound, against invisible restraints. When ZEL S's Mika. Bules not nicknamed "Daddy Eightropes" for nothing, invites well built, muscle hunks into his Bondage Video Studio, you get to see the essence—no, the quintessence—of a whole new phenom EERCHC ARUSCLE BUNDAGE PERFORMANCE ART

Bales knows less is more. And he feasts on it!

The fantasies that cross your mind while you watch his Soici Bodynic Iders, bound hand and foor parting, breathing, sweating, straining to full pump and vioculantly against the hondage, are probably best not mentioned to your shrink. Plus, ZEUS's type of man, unlike Old Reliable's appealing, ow-rent street trash, is more genomely, as it should be for a studio daring to call itself ZECS, more near to the classical Greek Idea.

If you've ever wanted to, comeosually of course, formap a college jock, capture a musicular sorder or abduct the bunk of your dreams, ZEUS's Solo Sex Bondage videos will make your Solo Sex seance in the privacy of your video room a Pasobiti Festival of Sensual Delights. ZEUS's Solo videos centered on muscle-bondage are not centered as much as Old Reliable's are around the model's own curring.

ZEUS provides the set-up for the only cuming that matters, YOURN

The ZEUS formula—hot bods in "Designer" (interpret that word in its best sense) Bondage works—even with variation. Occasionally, disconnected hands stroke the pecs, also thighs, butts balls, and disks of the bound muscle heroes. Believe mellyou are THERE! Those disconnected hands become your hands! ZEUS knows how to locus its material precisely, and, for those viewers who absolutely need "moneyshots," ZEUS provides enough onscreen jerking off and cumming to satisfy the disk centered viewer without getting in the way of the "purist rope-n-muscle" viewer who is especially hot and hungry for Solo Heroic Muscle Bondage ala carte!

What a genre' it's genuinely original, fresh, and new!

Everything that rises must converge, and ZEUS's mix of rope-and-muscle-resistance is a most harmonic convergence! Actually, as Erotic Performance Art, ZEUS exhibits Solo Sex video gunius! WARHOL AND THE ATHLETIC MODEL GUILD

The legendary Athletic Model Guild started in El Lay during WWII by Rob Mizer, which DRU MMER bereby dubs "The Father of Solo Sex Entertainment," created the art form of the Solo-Studion-Screen on his then state-of the-art flows film loops. (Not that Muybridge and Edison distort try it first!) Mizer is still going strong on video with Solos, a though he varies the form, as noted Old Rehabte, whose mentor Mizer is, with his duo wrestling videos.

For you art lovers and gay historians, as well as for you fundamentalists reading this public at an these Solo videos are not obscene according to current Supreme Court rubings, precisely because they are using the legal lingo, of "serious artistic and positical value" chronicing, as they do, the real historical lifestyte, and sexsivle of a legitimate American subculture.

What an American Ofizen does with his body is the Ultimate Political Act.

We re talking first Amendment Constitutional Rights here. Rights that have been already intringed upon in 15 states. By the time you read this article, you may not be able to buy or tent any of these videos, because Congress, as of the day of this willing, sent to Reagan for signing, an obscene is if that despite its unConstitutionality, will try to knock erotic art in America on its butt.

SO GET POLITICALLY ACTIVE if you want to protect for the present and the future magazines and videos that reflect and record who you are, and who we all are, as a select group of American citizens. Our Homosexual Identity is Constitutionally at stake here. All printed and recorded traces of our God given litestyle are at more risk than our bodies are from Unsate Sex.

Anyway, before I was so rudely interrupted by this day's terrible censorship newsilash, the art stit pineage from Bob Mizer to Andy Warhol's underground movies is clearly evident in Warhol unforgetable "Solo" film. BLOW JOB (1964), where all you see onscreen is the upper forso and face of the NYC stud who is obviously being serviced below camera range. Mizer is probably best known for his one-handed mag, Physique Pictonal, basically a hot J.O catalog of AMC/s Solo video study.

Through the world's greatest leather-rubber (etish photographer, who was also once one of the great loves of my fite, the wicked, wicked Robert Mapplethorpe, I met and interviewed Peter Ber in who, if ever there was a Narcissus of Solo Sex, is the winner, for years, the reclusive blond, sylph ike Berlin has sold Solo Sex movies and videos of himself, shot by himself, oftentimes featuring himself jerking off with against himself on screen. As far as I know, Berlin has rarely shot another model, and has furned his own image, with his own camera, into an esthelically, and one trusts, financially successful, cottage industry of Solo Sex, Peter Berlin, in -Move over, Mar o Thomast – THAT BO) and his four-de-force, NIGHTS IN BLACK LEATHER is total symbol of the high-flying Solo Sex, Act o Man Alone, of Man as Island, of Man Totally Sexually Self-Absorbed.

CHRIS RAGE AND FRANK VICKERS

Opposite to Berlin's two-ply self-absorbancy, foursquare stand Christopher Rage's videos starring Frank Vickers. Vickers, frequent Colt Model and Cover Studiot the solo J/O stories in the book STAND BY YOUR MAN AND OTHER ONE HANDED. TWO-FISTED STORIES, (available mail-order through Desmodus), is direct contrast to Peter Berlin.

While Peter, the Black Leather Narcissus, gives no screen indication that any other peter exists but his, Vickers, as created more buge than life by the outrageous Rage thimself named after Kenneth Anger), performs his Solo Sex on himself, but yet he always seems to be strutting his stuff inter-actively for you. In some of the WCiRSHIPT video episodes, he is entirely self absorbed by his own muscle and beauty. In others, he watches construction workers from behind Venetian blinds and pounds his pod. But, always, the truly altruistic exhibitionist Frank Vickers, whose blond muscle ZEUS should tie up as only ZEUS can do, acknowledges real recognition of you watching him knock off his Solo nut. (Couldn't you just get, like totally lost, boys, in that Bermuda Triangle Trade of Talent Vickers as Colf model: Vickers as Rage model. Vickers as ZEUS model¹)

Frank Vickers is not only a handsome blond. NYC bodybuilder, he's a hasty all- of the-above, and the perfect Solo Sex. Archetype for any and every Leatherman with sense enough to worship what Gods he finds before himself—including himself. Small wonder that the canny Rage titles Vicker's best Solo Sex video, simply, WORSHIP! (Buy it! Rent it! And worship you will!) Frank Vickers is the kind of guy who makes you crawf on your knees to lick the screen.

SOLO SEX IS NOW

The roster of erotic stars who participated, quite innocently, in organitic sex videos—before any of whew better ineads, unfortunately like the Tibetan Book of the Dead Today's erotic stars, like Superstud Keith Ardent in 9 INCH PEC STUD IN BLACK RUBBER DRUMMER 118 Coverman and lead feature), much prefer Solo Sex onscreen appearances. So concerned with safe, but extreme performance is the ardent Mr. Ardent that he approached Palm Drive Video, a 3-year-old studio that specializes in Solo Sex almost exclusively. Something like PDV's boxing video hit. GUT PUNCHERS because a puncher needs a punchee, features the consensual duo of El Lay's Dan Dufort and Cino Deddino saka B G.'s "Gino Gentry"), yet, at least half the video is the dropdead handsome Gino working himself over with Solo Sex self inflicted Everlast punchest Gino, like Keith, is one of those ob-so-talented Solo Sex artists who can, within the infinity of Solo Video, do a "Figure 8" on an ice cahe.

Palm Drive's roster of videos, in fact, is a verifable catalog of Soio Sex. As inter-active as are the videos of Old Reliable, PDV takes INTER ACTION to new depths, thiter active means that the Solo Studionscreen looks directly into the camera lens which means he looks directly out of the screen into your face; inter-active means he talks all kinds of verbal trash directly into your ears, as in PDV's IHRASHER, NASTY BLOND CARPENTER I/O, or REDNECK COWBOY HELDEINT FOR LEATHER or in another style, seductively whispers you in to lick and worship his hairy muscles as does DRUMMER DADDY. Dave Gold, in DAVE GOLD'S GYM WORKOUT. (See DRUMMER 117. A Daddies Issue).

Palm Drive's Solo Sex videos recently became a "hot dem." in these Safe-Sex days, when San Francisco's syndicated CBS-TV talkshow, the ever-talkating People Are Talking, came calling. Dave Gold was invited by co-host Ann Fraset to appear as a Solo Sex, therefore, Safe-Sex, Video Star who working with this new concept, was both proud of his erotic art videos and articulate enough to talk live to a studio audience about the joy and common sense of Solo Sex.

SOLO VIDEO'S WAR ON UNSAFE SEX

The efforts of the new videographers, like ZEUS. Old Reliable and Palm Drive are much like Cable and Lombard, stars who stumped the USA selling bonds to help the war effort. Solo Sex videos truly, creatively, help the war effort on AIDS, precisely because they entertainingly keep the viewers off the streets away from unsate temptation while they ofter both instructional and dramatic introduction as to how other guys inventively perform Solo Sex by themselves as healthy HOME VIDEO ACTERNATIVE to taking unnecessary chances on love in the bushes. Who says erotic artivideo, same as all the informational Desmodus publications, can't also raise public consciousness on medical and political issues?

SOLO VIDEO NO WAY CENSORS MULTIPLE VIDEO

Hold it! We're not talking "Sexual Autism" here. We're not saying don't have Safe Sex with others, and we're delimitely not negating videos that feature multiple sex partners (even those shot before Safe Sex became a fact of life). The point here is that the subject at hand is creative, self-affirming Solo Sex, emerging, empowered by Solo Sex videos, from the Old Wives' closet where masturbation was supposed to grow hair on your hands, blind your sight, and make you go crazy.

Solo Sex videos are, as a matter of High Concept, Safe-Sex Primers. "See Dick See Dick pump. See Dick cum." Just as James Joyce, in his once-banned UEYSSES, introduced the shocking Molly Bloom the world's best-written Solo Sex scene so do today's videos and mags carry the banner for continually surprising viewers and readers by celebrating the joys of Solo Sex Joyce's Molly keeps repeating "Yes. Yes! YES!" as she takes Solo Right to Solo orgasm. Masturbation is, among whatever else it is, a self-proclamation of independence to the world, shouting, YES, giving sexual, existential proclamation that, goddammit, pay attention, I AM HERE!

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT'

When the video model inter actively relates to you, the viewer, you get yourself a High-Tech Sate-Sex, very intense partner for the nights when you might otherwise be tempted to cruise out high-risk. Solo Sex videos are, to be clinical, a comfortable, creative, alternative sex-trip absolutely correct for both the duration of this Vital War as well as for the duty each of us has to ourselves for sexual sensual self-reintegration when drained by the madding crowd

When you refled up with the baggage of too much interpersonal sex, sometimes too often with sexual vampires, who suck your soul and give you nothing, or when you're just plain horny, a good session with a Solo Sex video can keep you happy at home, and let your hand satisfy you—body and soul—safely and, as with all masterbation, better than any one else.

If that isn't a psycho-social High Tech service of Constitutional value provided by video artists and models to help you make it through the dark night of the A-Word, nothing is. These Solo Sex studios are responding fast to answer a definite need in the homomasculine psyche that ranges from Solo Vanilla i/O to Solo S&M. Do yourself a favor. Get current. GET REAL! Write to all your representatives in Washington, and then, if you live in a "Free," not "Outlaw" state, write to all these video studios for their free catalogs.

TIESTHATBIND

IN THE SCENE

This month, I want to start talking about communications with your partner as the scene is unfolding. My hope is that you can think about how some of these ideas might apply to your own playing style and perhaps enhance your experiences in scenes.

Let's begin with the element of time—it's important to note that a "scene" will often begin before the "action" part actually starts to happen. Likewise, the "scene" usually does not end until what I have called "re-entry" (into standard day-to-day mond, has been smoothly accomplished. These are generalizations, of course, and there are fine scenes happening that lack the pre-action and post-action phases that I refer to bete.

My point in mentioning all this is that movement through these phases is usually accompanied by changes in the communication style of the players. One handy way to think of a scene is to think of the tive speed transmissions found in fine cars. First gear only takes you so fast. To go faster (faither) you need to leave first gear behind and shift up to second and so on

Likewise you may start in "first gear" when you meet someone in a bar, at a party, or wherever. As you cruise and become interested and begin to detect mutual interest, you might want to think about escalabing the intensity of your exchange by shifting into "second gear" so to speak. For many guys nowadays, this shift is usually into a talk about safer sex issues and any other negotiations about the content of the hoped for scene.

If there is agreement about safer sexual matters and you think there might be an SM (it, a shift to "third gear" in ght then happen. This could include more intimate touching, moving a bit closer during conversation, less talk and more looking, dealing with logistics like "Can we do this ton ght, and where?", "Do you have a car parked somewhere?" "Do you have to work tomorrow?", "Have you taken drugs of any kind?", "Can we make noise at your place?". Liyou know the stuff I mean importantly, this communication "gear" can, and often does include some hot talk which may or may not hint at possibilities for the anticipated "action" portion of the scene which may have already begun in the minds of one or both players. "I have a hot little room that I'd like to see you strung up in for a few hours or so ", or "I would really be glad for the chance to to to be of some service to you, Sir."

So far, I have been describing a typical connection between strangers meeting for the first or second time. Moving through the first and second communication. "gears" can take five minutes or five weeks.

If you are already in a relationship, you will usually start your movement toward playing with the "third gear" type communications which will sound different than between strangers. So you might get, "I am hoping for some hot time." with you on Saturday night, because something very special came in the mail vesterday that I want to introduce you to. . . or, "Yes, I will enjoy going out for a while, but I want to save enough time tonight to play with you, so wear something that will make my dick hard and get on your knees when we get home ", or "I spent some time polishing your boots earlier and got a hardon - is there something I can do to make you feel helter?"

Once the action portion of the scene is at hand, [tourth gear] typically, (yes, of course there are exceptions aplenty) the top, if He is the dominant sort, tends to determine the amount and variety and direction of the verbal (with words) communications. The bottom, if he is the submissive sort, tends to determine the amount and variety of non-verbal communication (sounds, not words, and movement, both body and eyes) for example, in scenes that I have had the honor to watch between dominant. Tops and submissive bottoms, the bottoms quite often do not speak unless spoken to except to use safe words if available, to answer questions, and to make reports about body conditions ("I think I should tell you that I'm getting cold.", or "The knots on the left side are slipping.", or "My contacts are still in", or "Sir, my hands are talling asleep and will be completely asleep in about 10 minutes or so "I

Conversely bottoms tend to respond to whatever Top is doing with a wide range of sounds and movements that reveal their reactions to whatever is happening. In GENERAL, Tops do more talking in a scene than bottoms, and bottoms make more wordless sound. In many 5M relationships that have stabilized, the men will often play together for hours with scarcely any words exchanged whatsoever – but that doesn't mean they aren't communicating. They just don't feel the need to use many words

Many bottoms that I have spoken with both in and out of the therapy room who consider themselves to be successful players have said that they tend to prefer to communicate with Tops in non-verbal ways during the "action" part of the scene, UNLESS there is some important problem that develops—then, they are more willing to use words

Some skilled bottoms can purposely inform Tops about the lightness of restraints merely by glanding at a light one with a frown or with an accompanying twisting motion in the wrist. I know of bottoms who have stopped unsuccessful scenes cold just by taking something having gotten in their eye. They can encourage a Top to whip them harder for softer just by moving their assion back a bit differently, or with a smile or a groan of pleasure. All this, and more without words of any sort.

In other articles that have appeared in this space, I have referred to "cuing" and these are just other examples of the art of cuting at work. Of course, bottom cues are wasted on Tops who don't know how to read the cues or miss them altogether. There are also Tops who have no interest in bottom's cues and will do exactly as they please up to, and in some cases, hevond bottom's limits.

My guess about all this is that by choosing not to use words unless it's urgent, these bottoms reinforce the feeling in the scene that the Top is in total charge of events—they do this because they believe it makes their scenes hotter. This can support a Top in a scene and encourage Him to be more spontaneous in actuality, for scenes WiTH THESE BOTTOMS, events in the scene are influenced by BOTH Top and bottom.

Fifth gear happens when the players fall into a comfort with each other that allows them to feel that the scene is going to work out well. The communication exchanges are smooth and complete enough to get the job done without being excessive. Things are hot and it's happening. At this

THE BEST S M IS THE REAL STUFF

The 15 Association is one of the local organizations of San Francisco S Militer Their play parties are renowned. And now you can attend one without ever traveling to the City by the Bay ibecause the 15 have just made "The 15 Tape."

This tape is the real staff. Teathermen all play in their own environment. The filming is a little raw sort of like a home video, botts are sometimes achieved when the camera shuts on and off solumps from one scene to the next are often jolling. But who cares? The people in this firm know what they are about when it comes to "playing."

"The point of making the film was trido some real $ M. There's not enough good stort around," said 15. Association peopler Peter Fiske. "We brought in the lights and let people play. We had such a good time we torgot the cameras were there. It went beautifully.

Fiske says the club has received such good feedback about the tape that they have just completed another, which will be released in February 1989. The second video was also shot by Clubmember Rob Cates, with assistance from another member, pamed Strain.

The first tape opens with a prologae a smooth, heautifully built fall inearly naked "David" in a hood (who returns in several other scenes completely naked straightens bundles of long, thin branches. He then straps a fully clothed man to a table, pulls down the man's pants and very expertly thrashes the otan's exposed ass with the sticks. When he tin shes, he unstraps the man, and they shake hands. Very civil zed

This appetizer is tabing, because the 15 are well known for their whips paddles, crops and straps, and they do not disappoint. "The 15 Tape" is packed with skillfully executed, excuing whipping, paddling, cropping and strapping scenes. In fact, it may be the best film of this genre I have seen

My favorite segments take place in the Association's "whipatorium", where two cilterent bottoms willingly bond over a low, padded sawhorse and a low their asses to be caressed with some toying eather instruments. Neither man is bound to this horse but each takes a pretty severe beating. The first man whip connoisseur Peter Fiske, has his assistioned but he stares into the camera relaxed and content. Whips can be mystical instruments in the right hands and against the right rear ends.

My second layonte whip scene teatures Strap, who works on a young bottom in teather cap, jacket and black handkerchief blindfold. The bottom has a stunning hairless white ass packaged in black teather chaps, and I just love to watch him bend over that horse white Strap spanks, crops, whips, paddles and straps him for more than fifteen minutes. Strap mounts an aggressive, athtetic attack, but the bottom hardly moves a muscle, though you can hear his moans and cries beneath the mood music playing in the clubhouse.

Setween the whipping scenes, are some scenes of social groping, masturbation and sucking between club members. Every so often filmmaker Rob Cates has inserted stills of leather drawings by San Francisco artist Les, who does an annual calendar of 5 M art for the 15

The best non-whipping scene involves our lithe "David" who is tied with one arm on his back to a table. His other wast is handcutted to his dick, and he jerks of while various players torture his tits. It's a little long, but very hot.

The film concludes with quick flashes of various scenes we have witnessed in the film, and people we have met. This segues into shots of the 15, and other leather folk at a recent San Francisco Gay Pricle Festival.

I highly recommend this hour-long tape to any reader who wants to have some real S. M to plug into the VCR. This is not the phony flutt stuff leather usually available in video shops. The film costs $40.00 from the 15 Association. PO Box 421302, San Francisco. CA 94142-1302 Please allow $5.00 shipping and handling per tape.

"If you like our tape, you may want to come to our play parties," added Fiske The 15 play the third weekend of every month.

Believe it or don't you can find it al. in Altomar V deo's newest release, "Black Magic, White Heat " And ibe reveilt or don't, despite my requisite soide opening remarks, Lactually tiked a lot of this film. The camera work, sound and editing are not half bad. The script and acting are more natural than most porn (licks I've. seen. Perhaps the age of the actors, generally late twenties and older, has something to do with the quality of the acting. Most of the pretty kids in gay skin thicks are atraid to speak for fear their voices will crack or their tongues will trip on an "sssss " These guys have no such problem.

itest of all, the sex in 'Black Magic' is not repetitious, unless you count too much masturbation. Cameraman Rolf Eric Bergman has attempted to give each sexual encounter a character of its own None of the shots dwell too long on one relating mouth or squirting dick head. He keeps it moving. The result is, amazingly visual interest! Hello, William Higgins?

Although it may sound lumy, writer thrector Thor Johnson, who brought us Cult of Manhood" and "Max Makes It Big" thoth of which were reviewed by Ken Lackey in Drummer 114), has attempted to create a relevant New Age gay "erotic" movie in "Black Magic, White Heat " And despite the superficial holoness and odd plots, I believe a sincere message comes through. Go for your dreams

Amusingly he's added a few details in make modern Californians feel right at home, including crystals (as in quartz), condoms, finking belis, soft synthesizers and the power of positive thinking. Dear Larry,

As a young (27) bike rider, I have really gotten into leather clothing. I think I look good in it, and I certainly enjoy the feel. against my skin. I love to go out naked except for my leathers, just knowing that there is nothing between me and all that black leather is a real turn-on. Over the past couple of years I have seen several. pictures in various magazines (not just gay) ones) of gays in beautifully designed and titled outhts, but I've never been able to find similar things in any of the stores I've gone to, and no one seems to know how to make them. The things I like most are maybe not made in the U.S. One of the most distinctive things about them is a little band of red leather along the seams of the pants and jackets. Do you know where I might go, or write to get a catalogue. of these really hot leathers? I'm a pretty standard size, so if they come ready made I should be able to buy them follthe rack"

Randy, Detroit, MI

Dear Randy,

Although there are plenty of leather shops in this country which can make about anything you want, I think the items you have seen are probably European. The red seams are a sort of trademark. Try: Hein Gericke, Expressverstrand, Speditionsstrasse 1-3, D-4000 Dusseldorf 1, West Germany, They are a large mail. order outfit, and offer all kinds of leather clothing. Their catalogue is about the size of a small telephone book, so they'll undoubtedly want a few bucks to send it. One caution: A lot of the better leather clothing made in Europe is lined, often with silk or nylon. This might not satisfy your desire to be "naked in leather",

Dear Earry,

I have become involved in a strange situation, and I'm not sure how to handle it. I'm 43, in preity good physical shape and making a better than average income. I have a rice apartment, but not much time or interest in the chores necessary to clean it, etc. I replied to an ad in a local gay throw-away and hired a young guy to clean my pad once a week. He had references and so forth, so I wasn't concerned with giving him a key and etting him do his number while I was at work. About a month ago he called me one evening and asked if he could work.

on Saturdays. Of course, that meant having him there while I was at home, and at first I wasn't too cracked on the idea, but I finally said we could give it a try. Now the kid is a very hunky guy ITII call him "Bob"-not his real name), and he works in just a pair of cut-oits. Well, to make a long story short the inevitable has happened. Except that Bob is into all the Drummer-type of action and he's been getting me into it—as the bottom. I love it, of course, and really dig everything that he does to me. Now we've. come to the d-lemma. I'm biring him to do what is essentially grunt work, but he is becoming my Master. It's awkward to tell the guy who's just fied you down and whipped your ass that you want him to wash the windows or scrub the kitchen thour. On the other hand, I certainly don't want to get into the very situation I bired. him to remedy. So far, the issue hash to come up (between us), but I know it wile have to Suggestions?

Name Withheld

Dear Withheld,

You are in a situation with so many possible variables, it is hard to foresee exactly how things are going to develop. I'd suggest a couple of possibilities. Tell him of your concern and suggest that he do the apartment work on a day when you aren't there. This way, there isn't any employer-employee exchange, at least not face to face. You can then play your games under circumstances which are separated from his work. Or, if your relationship is developing into a play-for-pay situation, and that's what you both want, hire someone else to do the housework and have your sex with Bob when and where it's convenient In any event, I agree that the present arrangement is going to become awkward and you are wise to try planning ahead

Dear Larry,

All what point in a relationship do you think it is sale to stop having "safe sex?" My lover and I have been together for almost a year and a half. We have both tested HIV negative for all this time (three tests each starting about the time we met and the last one a month ago). Neither of us is playing around outside the house—no three ways etc. Second question, how about amy? We both used to enjoy using poppers, but are now atraid to do so. I know you always advise on the side of caution, so what do you think?

C.R., Long Beach, CA

Dear C.R.,

If you haven't been exposed to the AIDS virus, you aren't going to pass it on—one reason for so many guys entering into monogamous relationships. As long as you can each trust the other to keep it that way, I'd say you were safe to do about whatever you want together. As to amyl, there is—again—no way for it to contribute to your contracting the virus as long as neither of you has it to start with The other health risks inherent in using it, of course, are going to remain.

Dear Larry.

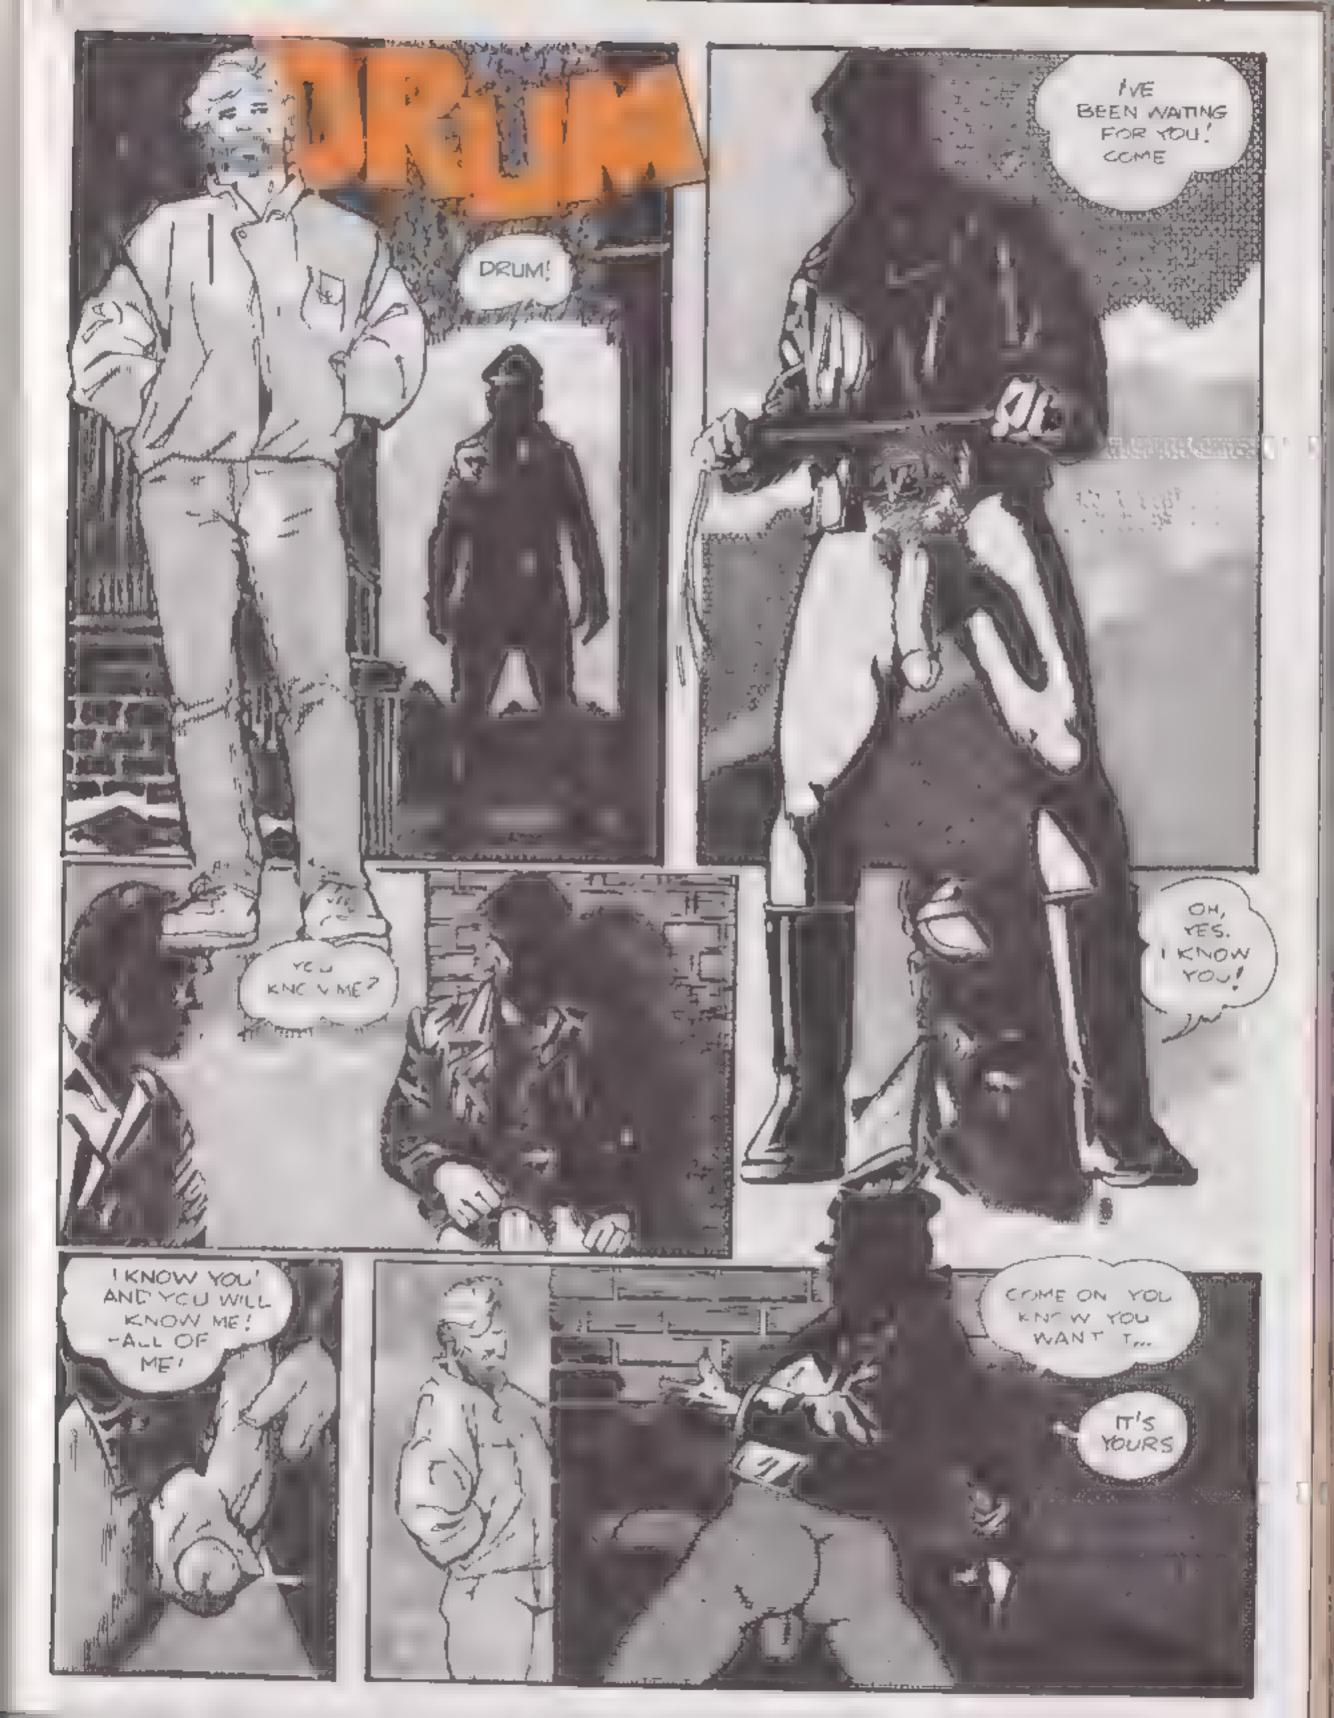

You have apparently been to Europe number of times, so perhaps you can advise mill am going to London over Christmas and because of the current health crisis I want to take some personal tems with me, such as dildos etc. What are the chances of my having an embarrassing incident going through customs? And if they do make me open my bag and find the things, are they apt to be them away from mer.

S.D. New York NY

Dear $.D.,

Assuming you look like an average tourist, the chances of having to open your bags going into England is remote. Even if they do open them, it is unlikely they will take a dildo away from you, since it is not an illegal item. Do not, of course, attempt to carry any controlled substance (dope). If you are concerned about having your private sexual tastes bared before the customs inspectors. however, I might suggest that England is quite a civilized country, and London has a plethora of adult book stores that sell all kinds of marital aids. You can easily buy them there and save the potential embarrassment. Coming back, US customs are more likely to inspect your baggage, although lately they are also too busy to be bothered unless you look like a doper.

HOW YOU HAVE TO BUY W

You probably don't need the VITA-MEN formula if you are not a male, 21 years of age or older. Or if you are and you consume a perfect diet daily, with little or no junk food, consume no alcohol nor smoke, keep regular hours and there is little or no stress in your life.

And if your ldyllic life includes no exposure to whatever it is that causes colds and flu, along with many of the other communicable diseases that plague mankind

Now, we certainly are not claiming that VITA-MEN or IMMUNITABS will make you immune to all the things that are going around, but considering what is going around, we hanestly feel that your chances are considerably better if your body is operating with its immune system on battle-stations alert

There are a great many reasons for preferring VITA-MEN products to the run-of-the-mill drug store variety. Or even most of the megaformula brands with something for everyone.

If you are a young man, aged 21 to whatever, after cleaning up your act, may we suggest you perfect your diet. You are whatever goes inside you. And VITA-MEN was designed by dedicated doctors to do Just that, buddy.

So, sit back, relax, grease a palm or two, and become acquainted with a dozen good reasons to buy Drummer. Yeah, we know. You buy it for the articles Well, for those of you who like nothing better than to look at photos of handsome, hunked out he-men, have we got a guy for you! Twelve, in fact, beginning with our brand-new Mr. Drummer, riveting Ron Zehel, (see page 11) a young Knight from Columbus, Ohio, where they grow 'em smooth-chested, sweet-assed and self-assured. Ron says that as a Top, he is always striving to perfect his SM technique. Looks pretty perfect from here, but I digress. For an in-depth and probing view of righteous Ron's other endowments, watch for an upcumming issue of Drummer! We'll peel away the jock and reveal what be-cums a leather legend most.

Meanwhile, meet the mighty men who sought the prize. Get strokin'! One word of caution, however. Once the pages get stuck together, it's damned hard to get 'em apart. I speak from first-hand experience.

SDG ORGANIZES

The Seattle Dungeon Guild has formed a tormal organization interested in furthering the concepts of 5 and M. After spending several years as a loosely structured group - sometimes not even sure of its membership -- they have written their purposes into a set of by-laws aimed at giving the Seattle area a prace not only to pray, as they have done with several "dungeon." eyents, but a place to learn and develop. shilosophies and techniques in 5 and M. play 5ati rday June 18th marked their otticial installation of charter "guidsmen" and officers. This invitation-only installation was tobowed by a men-only dungeon. ppen to the public

With the development of a set of purposes, the Could has created the foundation needed to build a group that is interested in learning more about the techniques of S and M play. The Seattle area can look forward to seeing the Could take a leadership role in the development of S and M based on safety and education along with a sharing of ideas, philosophies and techniques.

The purposes developed by the Guild

- 1. To provide a sate environment and supportive group for the practice of gay male 5 and M among consenting adults.
- 2. To provide training to members in safe 5 and M practices, safe-sex tech in ques, dungeon and play equipment design, construction and maintenance, and in basic first aid and health training
- 3. To encourage, support and offer oversight of the furnishing and use of index dual home dangeons and "toy closets" by Guild members.
- F To provide educational opportunities to the gay community in the practice of 5 and M and its philosophies
- 5. To be a resource for information referrals, equipment and training materials for the guild, its individual members, and for the local gay community.
- 6. To act as a leason with other traternal organizations, locally, nationally, and internal onally.

With these purposes in mind, the Guild will continue to work throughout the sum mer putting together a program of work shops and activities to further their own education and abilities as well as those who are interested in joining the Guild

It is not all work and no "play" however the Guild had a "members only" party in August, sponsored two dungeon parties in conjunction with the Living in Leather III conference in October, and is planning more such activities for the future

Anyone wishing to know more about the Guid and membership should contact the club at it's new address. SDG PO Box. 21911. Seattle: WA 98111.

The Master Key Vol. 1 No. 1

GMSMC— More initials in Philadelphia.

In the summer of 1988, the Cav Men's NM Co-operative of Philadelphia was tounded by men with a common interest sadism masochism. The men who founded CAMSMC left Philadelphia and its leather community needed something different With this in mind, our goals and purposes were first established, expounded upon and are now being set in motion.

Below are these goals and purposes. We hope you gain from them and begin to understand why we call ourselves "Gay Men's 5 M Cooperative"

EDUCATION: The Current health crisis has torced everyone to look for and adupt sate sex practices. Through demonstrations and lectures we hope to show that S/M is one of the satest forms of sex. We stress the motto 'Sate' Sane and Consensual'

COUTREACH: For too long, the 5 M Leather members of our community have not been accepted as a respectable element of the Gay community. Much of this is due to a lack of understanding. It is our hope that through the observations of our actions and one-on-one discussion with us, that the Gay community as a whole will see, understand and accept the 5 M. Leather community as a caring, intelligent faction. We need one another to survive divisive actions and people outside of our-selves.

FUNDRAISING: Although money does come from some government and private sources to assist those individuals and groups tighting for our lives, we feel it is not enough. Maintaining funding for research for a cure for AIDS is but one patt of the problem. Through fundraising for designated charities, we will not only assist in tending a cure, but will also help those individuals already stricken maintain dignity in their lives through one-on-one interaction. We must embrace all Persons with AIDS.

We hope this bit of information has given you some understanding about GMSMC. Needless to say ad points have not been covered. However, feel tree to contact us at the address below. We are first and foremost a co-operative which means that we are pooling our resources together to achieve our goals. This is an organization of individuals working together to make the Gay community more aware of not only $ M but also the people who participate in d

INFERNO XVII

Chicago Hellitre Club's Interno XVII was held September 8-11 in Douglas, Michigan. I have been to every Interno held and it has become difficult for me to find the words in describe the event. This year the by invitation only event was filled to its 200 man limit within a month after the invitations were distributed and, for the first time, over half of the men attenting were members of CHC. While CHC membership has been growing slowly over the years, it now stands at about 175 world wide, the percentage of members attending Interno every year is stead by increa.

All Lean say is that this year, as every ir, was the best one yet!

Articles on this year's Interno from a couple of different viewpoints, and some photos from this years and last years events will be published in upcoming ssues of DungeonMaster. Watch for them Fleder man

LIVING IN LEATHER III

This year's version of Living in Leather was also the best one yet! Over four hundred men and women attended. All areas of the west coast from San Diego to Vancouver were well represented as were other major western cities such as Denver. Dallas, and Phoenix and there were scattered representatives from Massachusetts, Ohio, Missouri, and other eastern areas. Living in Leather III was also well attended by hetero- and bisexual men and women with all of the west coast clubs well represented

More detailed reports on LIC III will appear in the next issue or Drummer along with information on the very positive strides taken there towards formation of a truly national organization or SM organizations and individuals

VASM ANNIVERSARY VI

Caretul planning, balanced programs, and good locations all worked together to provide the members and guests attending VASM's 6th Anniversary weekend a pleasant and relaxed event. The Hotel Dutterin was convenient, and included parking—a big plus in this vehicle-crowded city) to downtown and all weekend activities were in one location. Three couples competed in a 'grab bag' bondage competition which preceded the Anniversary Banquet.

Three well-presented technical demon strations tollowed. George Cameron of Vancouver began with "Basics of Bondage", John Ferrari of Los Angeles presented "Points on Piercing", and Dean of Seattle was most eloquent regarding the elations and evils of "Entertaining with Electricity." All were informational and stressed safe-sex practices which resulted in both peace-of-mind and pleasure for all participants. Attendees then adjourned to local watering holes before returning for some rest and or recreation through much of the early morning. Sunday brunch was a pleasant capping of the testivities.

The Banquet was also a recognition of George Whiting retiring as VASM president and his years of work for the oldest SM Organization in the Northwest Commen dations to Georges W and C for their work. The weekend was completely successful and thoroughly enjoyed by all altending
